Rogers Gives You Tip; Tune In On Keynoter Tonight

(Special To The News)

HOUSTON, June 26.—Say listen, I want to give you all a little tip, be sure to tune in your radio tonight on the Houston convention.

Now I know they are all terrible to listen to ordinarily, but get the keynote speech of this bird Claude Bowers.

I was the first one that suggested him for this job when I followed him at the Jackson Day dinner in Washington last spring.

He is a bear. You haven't heard the Republicans called anything till you hear this fellow, comedy, oratory, facts, and sense.

Shut off on all the others, but you will thank me for tipping you off to this guy.

He makes the Republicans pretty near as bad as they are, that's how good he is.

Yours for Straight Tips,
WILL.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

An old timer of this city, in a reminiscent mood last night asked Pa Newc to inquire in The News if there is any man in New Castle who remembers the good old days when he had his hair cut with the clippers at the livery stable or fire department, and who will admit it today. "And do they remember the licking they got when they got home?" added the Old Timer. Come on. Let's hear from you.

On next Monday Lawrence county's highway system will be boosted up another notch, when more than 15 miles will be added to the highways under the supervision of the state department. One of the principal roads to be added to the state highway system will be that between New Wilmington and Pulaski. Lawrence county is progressing steadily in the matter of good roads

Predictions of the weatherman of the district that the rainy season is going to end shortly will be hailed with delight. Rain is welcome now and then, but day after day, it sort of wears out its welcome.

New Castle is certainly getting on the route of auto tourists from far distant states this summer. Within an hour yesterday Pa Newc noted at least three autos that bore license plates of Massachusetts and one was closely followed by a car from South Carolina. Other nearer states were frequently represented in the auto procession as the cars passed by.

An improvement that has long been needed in New Castle is finally about to be accomplished, the connecting link between State street and West Washington street. Council yesterday opened bids for the paving of Greenwood avenue which is the connecting link. Two properties at the street intersection were recently purchased and the buildings razed so that the connecting link would be one that was free from hazard. This will give a connection for Ohio to Pittsburgh traffic and vice verso, that will eliminate many of the cars in the jam at the public square.

The barricate in front of the Lawrence Savings and Trust company's building officially came down Monday afternoon revealing one of the most beautiful bronze doorways in the city and a welcome addition to Washington street.

Now that the P and O. company has also removed their stockade there is but one left on the street and that is in front of the new First National Bank of Lawrence County building. And signs indicate that it will not be many days before this too is removed leaving Washington street entirely free from obstructions.

The New Castle Rotary club should be justly proud of the work that its crippled children's committee headed by J. Lee Calahan has done in the past few years. Pa Newc will venture to say that there is no place outside the metropolitan areas where the

Five Are Killed In Explosion Of Fireworks Plant

Explosion Razes Plant Near North Thompsonville, Conn., This Morning

THREE OF VICTIMS ARE CHILDREN

Identiy Of Victims Is Delayed Because Bodies Are Badly Mangled

(International News Service)

THOMPSONVILLE, Conn., June 26—Five persons were killed, three of them children who were visiting there, when an explosion razed the plant of the New England Fireworks company, on Brainard road, in the western outskirts of the town today.

None of the victims had been identified positively some hours after the explosion. heir bodies were blown to pieces by the force of the explosion.

Some Homes Wrecked.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 26.—Several persons were reported dead and a score or more seriously injured in an explosion today in the plant of the New England Fireworks company at North Thompsonville, Conn.

Reports reaching here stated that a number of homes near the plant were wrecked and that trees and small buildings were blown down by the terrific blast.

The explosion, the cause of which was not known here, originated in a group of small wooden buildings on one side of the main buildings of the plant.

First reports said that three boys and two men, all employes, were killed.

The injured were being cared for near the scene.

The countryside near the plant was covered with debris. Many windows in the homes of employes of the fireworks company were smashed by the air concussion, the report stated.

Attempting To Compromise In Effort To Check Storm In Convention

OLD SUBTERFUGE HAULED OUT AGAIN

Gov. Dan Moody And Other Drys Not Satisfied With Compromise Program

By KENNETH CLARK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—A new plan of strategy was evolved by Democratic platform drafters today to head off the threatened stormy row over the prohibition plank.

The idea is this:

Let the wets bring before the resolutions committee a dripping plank calling for modification of the Volstead law.

Let the militant drys counter with a proposal lauding the Eighteenth Amendment to the skies.

Plan to Straddle

At this point, according to the scheme of those leaders who are seeking to make harmony, the watchword of the convention, both sides will be counselled to reconcile their divergent views through the adoption of a middle-of-the-road plank pledging the party to strict law enforcement.

The compromise plank, as suggested by Smith leaders, would condemn the Republican party for laxity in enforcing the Eighteenth Amendment and would place the Democrats on record as staunchly favoring the enforcement of all provisions of the constitution.

Representatives of the Smith camp and such champions of the drys as Senator King of Utah have discussed

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 26.—The Public Service commission today announced its approval to an application of the New Castle Electric Street Railway company to change service on two of its lines.

The commission also approved an application of the Pennsylvania-Ohio Coach Lines company a trolley subsidiary, to extend service in the city of New Castle.

The lines affected are the Grant street line and a portion of the lower park line. The latter is to be abandoned from Andrews stop, a short distance from the city line to Cascade park.

Complaint By City

Complaint was made by the city to the discontinuing service on the entire park line. It is claimed that the company could operate the line at a profit by abandoning service from Andrews' stop to the park on a ten

Ratification Of Nomination Of Governor Smith Seems To Be Certainty

PROHIBITION ISSUE ONLY THING FEARED

Party Leaders Hope To Get Convention Adjourned As Soon As Possible

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—The curtain went up today upon a Democratic national convention set upon ratifying the nomination of Gov. Al Smith, adopting a platform that will placate all but the extreme outer fringe of radicalism on the prohibition question and adjourning as quickly as possible.

The age-old political cry of harmony was the watchword, and for once the Democrats seemed in a fair position to realize it. At any rate there appeared on this opening day little chance of any repetition of the disastrous experience at Madison Square Garden.

Smith Nomination Formality

The nomination of Governor Smith, when the convention gets around to it, probably Thursday, will be a formality. It may be on the first ballot; if not the first, then the second.

There will be a sharp skirmish on the prohibition plank in the platform, but soothing influences have been at work and still working, and the majority opinion today seemed intent upon not letting either the rabid wets or the rabid drys run away with the convention, nor even to allow them to engage in any bitter and extended contest. The scars of Madison Square Garden are still sensitive and the leaders want no more such wounds.

The Smith leaders from the wet East would like to see a wet plank in the platform. They make no bones

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—The vice presidential star of Sen. Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, grew brighter today, although a dozen other candidates were widely discussed as potential running mates for the next Democratic nominee for president.

The "Board of Strategy" directing the campaign for Gov. Al Smith for first place on the Democratic ticket was reported to have definitely decided, in event of his nomination, to pick as his running mate a "dry Protestant, friendly to agriculture, from a Southern or border state." Robinson met the requirements fully LONDON, June 26.—General Umberto Nobile, now safe aboard the Citta Di Milano at Virgo Bay, today held a conference with the pilots of the three seaplanes using the ship as a base, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Rome stated.

The commander of the dirigible Italia which was lost while returning from the north pole, has thrown himself whole-heartedly into the task of rescuing the 20 men still marooned on the Arctic wastes.

Flier is Isolated.

He discussed with the pilots, one a Swede, the other two Italians, the feasibility of returning to his encampment with ski-equipped planes to rescue the four members of his party still marooned there, and the gallant Swedish flier, Lundborg, who was forced to join their isolation when his plane, the Upland, overturned on his second trip to the encampment after he had rescued Nobile.

Hoover Listens To Houston Convention By Use Of His Radio

Hoover Camp To Remain Calm As Democrats Select Leader In Sunny South

"No Mud Slinging" Says Work Concerning Coming November Election

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Herbert Hoover tuned on his radio receiver today and prepared to get as much political edification as possible out of the Democratic Convention at Houston.

The Hoover camp will keep quiet while the Democrats are selecting their leaders. The G. O. P. will make no bid for the front pages for several weeks to come.

Hoover now plans to go west about July 10 and the only contemplated action prior to that time is the selection of East and West managers, posts probably to go to Senator Moses of New Hampshire, and James W. Good, of Iowa.

Good is a little miffed because he was not selected as National chairman and so far has not given any indication whether he will assume charge of the Chicago Hoover headquarters. His friends, however, said that he would be ready when the time comes.

Short But Sweet

If the Republican campaign goes according to present plans it will be a short and snappy drive. Real action is expected to start about the middle of August or the first of September, after Hoover sounds the Republican call to arms in California with his address at the notification ceremonies.

Chairman Hubert Work said that the campaign would be based on accomplishments of the administration, the internationally known ability of Hoover to organize and administer big projects and a promise on constructive national policies.

"There will be no mud slinging," he said. "We don't underestimate Governor Smith's strength, but we don't think we can lose."

Wide Divergence Of Opinion Among Democratic Leaders On Farm Relief

By WILLIAM S. NEAL

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—A formal offer of an alliance between leaders of the "Farm Revolt" and Gov. Smith of New York was taken under consideration by the Smith managers today.

The proposal, carefully framed by a score of farm organization heads was presented by Ed. A. O'Neal of Alabama and Chester H. Gray of Washington, both legislative representatives of the American Farm Bureau Federation. It was received by Judge Joseph F. Proskauer and George W. Van Namee, generalissimo of the Smith forces.

Nothing definite resulted from the conference. A further effort will be made to bring the forces together, it was said by the farm leaders.

Old Man Magee was a wise old coot, and the years had taught him a lot, he was always prepared for the weather, he was, chilly or wet or hot. And though the sun was out full and free, this wise thinking, smart old fellow, went out prepared for a heavy rain, so he carried a big umbrella. "Now it may look foolish" he slyly said, "and you may think I'm not all there," "but what if it rains when I'm far from home, like an auto I carry a spare." So he carries his rain stick wherever he goes, and he carries it day or night, you can always see him no matter the day, gloomy or raying or bright. "This safety first is the thing with me," he said in his wistful way, and maybe he's right in the month of June, its sixty-seven today.

Smith Victory On One Ballot Is Possibility

"Nominate Smith On First Ballot" Is Uppermost In Minds Of New York Delegates

NEW YORKERS TO GIVE SOLID VOTE

By RAYMOND I. BORST
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—As the Democratic national convention got under way today there seemed to be but one thought in the minds of the New York delegates and the 700 Tammany braves who came down here to root for their idol, Gov. Al Smith. It was:

"Nominate Smith on the first ballot."

While the Smith leaders continued to insist they would not resort to any steam roller methods to put the New York executive over on the first roll call, they admitted, however, that nothing would please them more than to have the governor nominated on the first ballot.

"Of course, what happens on the first ballot is entirely up to the delegates, but I have insisted right along that we want to give every favorite son a chance to show his strength," said George R. Van Namee, pre-convention manager for Governor Smith.

But the rank and file of the New York delegates and the Tammany leaders who flocked into Smith headquarters gave no thought to any other candidate except their governor. They were smiling and laughing and slapping each other on the back, confident that Smith would go over on the first ballot with flying colors.

Mention of Governor Smith's name at the caucus of the New York delegation was the signal for a noisy demonstration that lasted several minutes. A resolution offered by National Committeewoman Elizabeth Marbury, that New York cast its 90 votes for Smith, was adopted amid wild applause.

SECOND PLACE ON TICKET MAY GO TO SENATOR ROBINSON

and was said to be the personal choice of Smith himself for the vice presidential nomination.

Four Classes

There were four classes of candidates for the second place honor, it was disclosed. Robinson occupied the first class all by himself. The Arkansas senator, who has led his party in the United States Senate since 1922, had the endorsement of scores of Smith leaders while spokesmen in the anti-Smith camp praised his record and raised no substantial objection against his candidacy.

The second class was occupied by Sen. James A. Reed, of Missouri, still fighting desperately for the presidential nomination, Sen. Alben W. Barkley, the Kentucky labor leader, and Sen. Pat Harrison, the genial Mississippian, who was a newcomer to the vice presidential races.

The third class, in the scale of possibilities, included former Sen. Gilbert M. Hitchcock, of Nebraska, the famous Wilson League of Nations leader, Rep. Cordell Hull, the Tennessee dry leader, Evans Woollen, the Indiana banker, Rep. Henry T. Rainey, of Illinois, and Gov. Vic Donahey, the thrice elected Ohio executive.

The remainder of a list of 20 potential candidates for running mate honors were in the final and hopeless class. These candidates were really hotel lobby possibilities, with few exceptions, and some of them never will hear their names presented to the convention.

NOBILE DIRECTS RESCUE WORK OF MAROONED CREW

Italia, Natale Ceccioni, has also been rescued and is believed to be aboard the Citta Di Milano. He suffered a broken leg when the dirigible crashed on the morning of May 25.

Discuss Rescue Plans.

Apparently the second rescue was made in the same manner as that of Nobile, but dispatches telling of it made no mention of the identity of the rescue party.

General Nobile also discussed with the pilots his plans for the rescue of the ten other members of the dirigible's crew who were separated from his party. Three of these set out afoot over the ice floes to search for aid. Nobile gave the pilots details of the route they planned to follow.

The other seven were carried aloft when the crash occurred and were separated from the rest of the crew. Nobile described the direction which the bag took before it disappeared from view.

Meanwhile, relief workers continued to search for Capt. Roald Amundsen, Major Rene Guilbaud and their three companions, now long overdue since leaving Tromsoe, Norway, last Monday in a French plane.

Two light seaplanes, equipped with skiis, are reported to have left the base ship Hobby to attempt to land at the Nobile encampment today.

Censure for Nobile.

ROME, June 26.—There were indications today that the Italian government is not entirely pleased because Gen. Umberto Nobile allowed himself to be rescued first from the ice floe in the Arctic. The government has sent a radiogram asking Gen. Nobile to forward immediately a report of the disaster to the Italia and the subsequent events including the rescue.

Contrary to Nobile's plan to assume direction of further rescue work the government announced that it will remain in charge of Commander Romagna of the supply ship Citta Di Milano.

the plan in private conferences and are understood to have approved it.

Smith Approves

Further, it was represented as having the approval of Governor Smith. He is said to have suggested it to his leaders here through one of his closest friends and advisers. It bears out earlier International News Service dispatches that Governor Smith, prior to the convention, would reveal his law enforcement plank wishes to his lieutenants here.

Of course, the compromise may not deter the radical wets or drys from carrying a fight to the floor but its backers hope it will take the sting out of their fight.

Gov. Moody Not Satisfied

That the Southern drys, under the leadership of Gov. Dan Moody of Texas, are not going to be satisfied with anything less than an open endorsement of the Eighteenth Amendment was manifested after a conference in Moody's headquarters. Attending were Senator Glass of Virginia, ex-Secretary of Navy Josephus Daniels of North Carolina and representatives of Tennessee and Florida.

The conferees approved a dry plank and selected Moody to wage the fight for it in the platform committee. The substance of the plan declared that the Democratic party endorses the Eighteenth Amendment and pledges itself to strict enforcement and observance of laws passed in pursuance thereof. The fight for this plank will constitute the anti-Smith coalition's last ditch to stop the New York Governor's nomination.

The short platform gospel has spread like wildfire among the leaders and Senator Walsh of Massachusetts announced he and Senator Caraway of Arkansas would submit a platform consisting of but 25 paragraphs. All the subjects except prohibition, farm relief, trusts and corruption will be covered in paragraphs of three sentences each.

Final work of dressing up the platform gets under way this afternoon with the first meeting of the platform committee. After an open session to hear proponents of various planks, a subcommittee probably will sit during the night, in the hope of getting the platform ready for the convention by tomorrow.

FARM LEADERS NOT ENTHUSED OVER PROSPECT

on the equalization fee appeared inevitable.

The New York congressional delegation already had disclosed a wide difference of opinion on this particular method of farm relief. Farm spokesmen were counting heavily upon the probability of Sen. Robert Wagner going on the resolutions committee. He fought for the bill in the last congress.

Despite the protestations of Democratic leaders that the farm issue would be met squarely and that the party favored relief, there is perceptibly less optimism among the two score farm organization heads than when they descended upon Houston expecting to be received with open arms.

Thomas Cashman of Minnesota reported pessimistic interviews, but George N. Peek of Illinois, directing head of the farm relief fight here, declared that he had every reason to believe that the Democratic platform would be highly satisfactory to the farmers.

Approve Caraway Plank

Although the farm relief backers do not insist upon the McNary-Haugen bill being named or the equalization fee mentioned, they insist that full provision must be made for government action to control the farm surplus and assess the cost against the commodity—which is the equalization fee.

Many Democratic congressmen who fought the bill, including Rep. Charles Crisp of Georgia are among the delegates in the convention. Crisp declared that he would not accept the principles of the bill as a part of the party's campaign pledges.

Farm organization heads have approved the plank proposed by Senator Caraway of Arkansas—endorsing the vital principles of the McNary-Haugen bill without naming it—and the Illinois delegation evolved a similar proposal to be presented by Michael Igoe, member of the resolutions committee.

Deaths Of The Day

Mrs. Nancy Gill.

Mrs. Nancy Gill, aged 63 years, widow of I. E. Gill of Youngstown, formerly of this city, died Tuesday morning at 3:30 in the Youngstown City hospital as the result of complications which developed from an operation on Monday.

Mrs. Gill was born near Edenburg a daughter of Timothy and Margaret Yates.

She is survived by three children, Mrs. H. C. Sankey of this city, J. R. Gill of Youngstown and D. Y. Gill of the Ellwood City road.

She also leaves two brothers Dallas Yates of Moravia Stop, James Yates of the Seventh ward and two sisters, Mrs. John Sheehy of Cambridge, Md., and Mrs. Herbert Patterson of Youngstown.

Ruth Heckart Buried.

Funeral services for Ruth Ellen Heckart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Heckart took place from the family home on McClelland avenue Monday June 25 at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. L. Stratton was in charge of the services assisted by Rev. Bender. The services were largely attended by relatives and friends of the little girl. A profusion of beautiful flowers banked the casket expressing sympathy and esteem.

The pallbearers were J. W. Heckart, E. C. Heckart, W. R. Heckart and Carl Bender. Burial was made in Oak Park cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas Edwards.

Mrs. Thomas Edwards, a resident of this city until about four years ago, when she and her family moved to California, died Monday evening at 11 o'clock at the family residence in Whittier, Cal., after an extended illness. Mrs. Edwards had been in poor health for some time and while her death comes as a shock to her many friends in this community, it was not altogether unexpected. Burial will be made in California.

Mrs. Edwards was born 67 years ago in Wales and was a resident of this city for some 25 years previous to going to California. The family resided on South Mercer street most of the time they resided here.

While in this city, Mrs. Edwards was a member of the Emmanuel Baptist church, taking a very prominent part in many of its activities. Her death causes widespread regret among the members of the congregation and entire community.

Mrs. Edwards leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and five children, Aneurin of Gary, Ind.; Mrs. John Rogers, Katherine and Clifford of Whittier, Cal., and Mrs. Lewis Thomas of Chicago.

Mrs. Minnie S. Hammond.

Mrs. Minnie Snyder Hammond, aged 29 years, wife of Fred Hammond, died at her residence, 906 East Washington street, Tuesday, June 26, at 5 a. m. following an extended illness.

Mrs. Hammond was born in New Port May 16, 1899, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder. She had been a resident of New Castle for ten years. She was a member of the Loyal Ladies lodge and the K. K. K. No. 25.

Besides her husband she leaves three sisters, Mrs. M. D. Black and Mrs. E. C. Woodward, both of Cleveland, and Mrs. Charles Wehr of California, and one brother, Herbert Snyder of New Castle.

Funeral services will be conducted from Kelley's chapel, 347 East Washington street, Thursday, June 28, at 1:30 p. m. Burial will be made in New Port cemetery.

Winfield S. Miller.

Winfield S. Miler a former well known resident of this community, passed away at his home in Hendersonville N. C. Monday June 25 after an extended illness according to a message received by relatives in this city.

Mr. Miller had been residing in the south for about the last 20 years. For a number of years previous to going to Hendersonville he had lived at Hillsville. At the time of his death he was a prominent and active member of the Methodist church at Hendersonville.

Besides his widow he leaves the following children: Charles and John Miller of New Castle, Fred Miller of Hillsvile, Mrs. Hugh McCreary of Lowellville ,O., Norman Miller and Mrs. Mabel Brown of Hendersonville.

Mrs. E. N. Baer of Wallace avenue is a sister of Mrs. W. S. Miller. In February, 1928 Mr. and Mrs. Miller celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home.

Gratta E. Seal, Jr.

Gratta Earl Seal, Jr., aged 13 months, son of Dr. G. E. and Margaret O'Rourke Seal died Monday, June 25 at the family home 623 East Washington street after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Besides his parents the baby leaves one sister, Billie Jeanne.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday June 27 at 3:30 p. m. from the residence. Burial will be made in Graceland cemetery.

Cumberland, Md., papers are asked to please copy.

Elizabeth George.

Elizabeth George, aged 2 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter George died at the residence, 721 Moravia street, this morning. Besides her parents she leaves the following brothers and sisters, John, Kalen, James, Tony, Francis, Anna and Rosie.

Funeral services will take place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the Assyrian church on Moravia street. Interment will be made in St. Vitus cemetery.

Wesley L. Biddle Buried.

Funeral services for the late Wesley L. Biddle of English avenue, veteran of the United States army were conducted from the Christian and Missionary Alliance Gospel tabernacle, Pearson street Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The pastor, Rev. E. C. Anderson officiated assisted by Rev. Richard Owrey of the People's Mission and Rev. W. H. Armstrong of the Wesleyan Methodist church.

Hotel Managers To Assemble Here

Will Be Guests At The Castleton On Wednesday Evening

With more than 25 of the representative managers of Western Pennsylvania's leading hotels in attendance, the monthly meeting of the Pittsburgh Hotel Men's Association will take place Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in the Crystal ball room of The Castleton. John L. Slack, manager of the local hotel, and a member of the association, will be host.

As special speakers, the Pittsburgh Hotel Men will hear Colonel Edward Olmstead, the executive director of the American Hotels corporation, and Emerson D. Owen, public relations counsel for both the American and United chains.

One of the features of the meeting will be a dinner, to take place immediately before the meeting, and being planned by Stewart P. Howson, steward of The Castleton.

BUS LINE WILL REPLACE GRANT STREET TROLLEYS

minute headway. Action on the company stopping service from Mill street to park line is withheld for a permit of six months to afford an opportunity to see if the line can be run without a loss, on the new basis.

The commission also has suggested that the city does not require the company to make any expenditures for paving obligations on the park line during the period which it will be operated as an experiment. The city did not protest the application on the Grant street line.

The company claimed it lost $20,000 on the park line since 1920.

Extend Bus Line

Extension of the bus lines will provide transportation facilities for persons now served by the two abandoned trolly lines and also in other sections of New Castle.

The route of the extension follows: Beginning at northern terminus of Wilmington avenue, south to square; west on Washington to Beaver street, north on Beaver street, north to Grant street, north on Grant to Sampson street north on Sampson to its northern terminus and returning over same streets.

"Konjola Proved A Blessing To Me" She Says

Kidney And Liver Trouble Had Made Life Miserable For This Local Lady.

Report after report is being received from every section of New Castle in which men and women are describing the wonderful relief this new Konjola medicine has given them in cases of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders. Just a few days ago Mrs. Jennie Long, living at 107 Quest street, this city, made the following statement to the Konjola Man at Love and Megown's drug store, 204 East Washington street, New Castle, where large crowds are calling daily to find out for themselves about this surprising compound.

"Konjola brought an improvement all over my system," said Mrs. Long. "It completely ended the kidney and liver trouble that had made life miserable for me and that is why I am strongly indorsing this medicine to other sufferers.

"My whole system was rundown especially my kidneys. They were causing my feet to swell and sometimes I couldn't begin to put on my shoes. My limbs became sore and achy and sharp pains would shoot thru my back over the region of my kidneys. When I noticed how my face was flushed all the time, I became worried and found out that I had high blood pressure. Even my eyes seemed to bulge out of their sockets and I had such severe headaches that sometimes I thought my whole head would break. The sluggish condition of my liver caused me to feel tired and drowsy the greatest part of the time and my bowels never moved regularly as they should. All this made me very nervous and it was very seldom that I was able to get a good night's sleep.

"One day my husband brought home a bottle of Konjola for me to try. At the time I had no faith in such medicines as this, but I was soon surprised at the relief it was giving me. When I saw how it was helping me, I decided to take the full treatment. Now, my liver and kidneys are back to normal and I enjoy the best of health in every way. The swelling in my feet and the pains in my back are gone, the headaches have left and the redness in my face has disappeared. It even increased my appetite and helped my digestion so that I no longer suffer from belching and gas bloating like I used to. I have enough strength to work all day without feeling tired and exhausted and at night I enjoy sound sleep until morning. Yes, Konjola proved a blessing to me and I am glad to tell others about it."

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Miss Loretta C. Lee Weds Baltimore Man

Beautiful in every detail was the wedding of Miss Loretta Caroline Lee, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lee, 1206 Delaware avenue, and Alfred Carson Ver Valen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Ver Valen of Baltimore, Maryland, which was solemnized in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Margaret Sankey, contralto, rendered a group of vocal numbers, accompanied on the organ by Miss Lillian Sarver, who played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, as a processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the recessional.

Rev. F. E. Stough, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church officiated with the ring ceremony, in the presence of 400 guests. Cathedral candles, palms and ferns decorated the altar.

White satin aisle ribbons were carried by Howard Colbert and Martha Anne Colbert of Butler, cousins of the bride, the latter wearing a dainty frock of white flowered tafetta.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white moire made with basque and bouffant skirt with uneven hemline. Her veil of white tulle made with high cap, was caught with a bandeau of orange blossoms, and she carried a bridal shower of white roses, and valley lilies.

Miss Catherine Grinnals, of Baltimore, as maid of honor was gowned in all over lace over gold satin. The bridesmaids, Miss Helen Ewing of this city, and Miss Grace Gault of Baltimore, Maryland, wore gowns of point esprit over pink, while Miss Barbara Shultz of this city, and Miss Ruth Truitt of Salisbury, Maryland, wore point esprit over green. They carried arm boquets of roses, delphinium and snapdragon, tied with maleen. The gowns were made bouffant style.

Arthur Baehr, of New York City, served as best man; and the ushers were William Aland of Butler, Pa., cousin of the bride, Kersey Gault of Baltimore, Maryland, Thornton Allen, and Bart Richards of this city.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents, supplemented the ceremony with 150 present. Profusions of roses and peonies were used in decoration, and color tones of pink and green were carried out in the refreshments. The bride's table was centered with a large tiered wedding cake, and tall tapers in silver holders.

The bride is a graduate of the local High school class of '21, and holds a Peabody vocal diploma, from Peabody Conservatory of Music, at Baltimore, Maryland, which is a distinction gained by only those having unusual vocal ability. Mrs. Ver Valen is popular in musical circles both in this city and Baltimore, where she has been an instructor in the conservatory since her graduation a year ago.

Mr. Ver Valen is a talented musician, and is president of the Hudson Building Supply company, of Baltimore..

Mr. and Mrs. Ver Valen left later in the evening for an eastern motor trip and upon their return will reside in Baltimore, Maryland.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Samuel Ver Valen of Baltimore, Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ver Valen and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carson of Haverstraw, N. Y., Judge A. E. Reiber, Martin Reiber, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reiber, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reiber, Miss Ida Reiber, and Mrs. Ed. Reiber of Butler, Pa., John W. THE NEW CHAIRMAN

SELECTION of a new chairman of the Republican national committee by Herber Hoover and ratification of his choice by the executive committee was in keeping with a long-standing tradition.

Hubert Work, secretary of the interior, was one of the first and most persistent advocates of Mr. Hoover's candidacy. Born in Pennsylvania, the new chairman's home is in Colorado and in his cabinet position he has been constantly in touch with men interested in the land problems of the West. Before his appointment to the post of secretary of the interior he was postmaster general, and an able one.

Franklin W. Fort, of New Jersey, the new secretary of the committee, is also one of the original Hoover men, and Joseph R. Nutt, a Cleveland banker, the new treasurer, preferred Hoover to Senator Willis in the primary campaign in Ohio.

Selection of these three places the campaign in competent hands and Mr. Hoover, than whom there is no better judge of character and capacity, indicates by his choice that these men have his fullest confidence in both respects.

Mr. Hoover himself, however, will probably be influential in the management of his own campaign. His genius for organization and administration will be at the disposal of the men who will be charged with the details.

MYSTERIOUS LOOTING OF THE OCEAN MAILS

THE very recent $500,000 ocean mail robbery provides every element of mysterious crime except that of violence. Most of our big mail robberies have been perpetrated by bandits who wrecked trains or "shot up" the crews of motor trucks or other vehicles of transit, rifled the valuable postal packages and dispersed. In this case it is difficult to determine whether the crime was committed in the United States, aboard the Leviathan during her transatlantic passage, or in England.

Registered mail for overseas is assembled in the large cities and sealed in separate bags, which are never opened until they reach their foreign destination. New York is the point of general assembly; the material is handled at the Varick street station under constant scrutiny, both public and secret. The bags are taken by armed convoy to the ship, lifted aboard in cargo slings and slid into a special hold, which is locked, barred and guarded during the passage. Careful check and receipt is made at every handling. Yet the seals on the looted bags were unbroken and there were no external signs that they had been tampered with.

The search for the thieves must necessarily be of immense scope. The task of discovering the amount of loss is of itself a great undertaking, since the sender of each missing parcel must be interviewed. Until that is done the estimate of $500,000 loss is a mere guess. But it serves as an indication of the immensity of the loot that the value has been placed so high.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS ON THE PRESS

JUST now the American newspaper has been passing through its annual barrage from the platform of commencement orators. This year the Philippics have borne heavily on the charge that crime is reported in too much detail.

Bless you, brothers, everything reported at all is reported in greater detail than it was in that gold (brick) age of the previous generation, the Philadelphia Inquirer hastens to answer. Look up the old files for the political conventions and compare the amount of space they got with the broadsides they receive today. Consult a year book for 1908 and see if you get a detailed table of the vote by state delegations on the ballot that nominated Mr. Taft. You may in some cases, but other reference works which now follow that practice failed to do it twenty years ago.

The change in standard affects a wider area than crime in newspapers. It affects the constructive aspects of the daily report of the world's events. The expansion is parallel with a similar growth in the attitude and energy of research workers. The whole field of knowledge is being explored more deeply.

In those old files, too, you will find that incidents are reported less entertainingly than today. Humorous writers now catch the sparkle of a convention which was absent in old accounts. Moreover, independent writers may often pass criticisms contrary to the newspaper's political views, and they are published without editorial tampering.

Yes, the press does go in for detail today. So do commencement orators. Once their specialty was abstract themes, the moral allegory of Italy's geographical relation to the Alps and the synonymity of perseverance and success—much like the modern affinity between Haig and Haig. Or there were those difficulties that lie on man's path to the stars. You see, our grandparents never heard of detours, and their mountain mole hills have become our hazards and bunkers.

Now the valedictorian discusses the vital things of life in a concrete manner—newspapers, for instance.

The scientists who found a skull an inch thick in Arizona didn't have to go to Arizona.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:34. Sun rises tomorrow 4:30.

Gen. Pershing says France treats her war veterans far better than we do our war veterans in America. We should not take a back seat from any country along that line. Maybe there isn't so much politics in things in France.

People who do not have plenty of natural troubles of their own seem to want to get out and hunt it.

Battery B annual reunion will take place at Mt. Jackson on Thursday of this week. A committee came to New Castle and made arrangements to have the local Civil War veterans transported to that place as usual this year. Chris Coulthard, superintendent of the local street car and bus lines, has offered a bus for the use of the veterans on that date and they will be taken to Mt. Jackson in time for dinner at noon and brought back to this city later in the afternoon. The soldiers appreciate the kindness of Mr. Coulthard and his company.

Every day scientists discover something that makes the old world older and older. It seems that it has taken millions of years to develop men and women to what they are today and at a cost of much toil and treasure And, while we can't say much for men, every time we look at women, particularly women from 16 to 20 we feel that time and money and effort have been well spent.

There are people who are great at starting things, but we know a bird who bought a flivver he couldn't start.

In our short and unhappy life we have heard many persons declare in their solemnity—or whatever it was—that they never let their left hand know what their right hand does. We always investigate every case of that kind and have never learned of very much that the left hand could tell. However, we know of some cases where the police would have been interested at what some of the right hands could tell if they would. The left hands are mighty dumb if they have to depend upon what the right hands of some birds tell 'em.

Animals in the zoo at Cincinnati go wild when they hear an airplane roaring above their cages. After reading this we wondered what effect the airplane would have on the wild animals in their native jungle. No doubt there are some wild scrambles when a plane flies over a jungle.

HUMANS LACK INSTINCT

Did you ever watch a flock of blackbirds in the fall? See the flock rise from a grain field with instant and graceful uniformity of motion, like a well-trained band of musicians responding to a baton—performing evolution after evolution as one bird. In massed formation it wheels to right or left or bend beneath the buffets of the wind without ever losing its compact unity, without confusion in the ranks, without so much as the brush of a feather. Brakes soft as the touch of velvet ease the wildness of the flight and as gently as a blown petal to the grass the flock comes to the ground, every bird at the same instant.

What unerring instinct preserves this mighty harmony of movement, what unheard command rules this winging band, we know not.

If human beings possessed the instinct—or sense—of blackbirds we would have no traffic problems.—San Francisco Chronicle.

A longing for revenge and a pistol are dangerous companions.

Those timid souls who used to be crazed still when they heard a big bumble bee humming around them surely have a new terror when an airplane buzzes above 'em.

People with ingrowing toenails wonder how the modern toe dancer does it without yelling out in anguish.

A reception was tendered a large number of persons who had just become naturalized, by the citizens of Butler, Pa., in the Community House in that city. This is about one of the best stunts we have ever heard of and not a bad one to imitate. However, it would be no place for such people at a modern field club.

More praiseworthy stunts are performed for pay than for any other reason.

When we hear of a man who has lost all save his home, one often wonders about that.

The proper measure of a man is the size of the thing required to give him a grouch.

It is too bad for those afflicted with political greed that they can't hold an office two terms at once.

It is predicted that we are to have a wet, cool summer. Well, so far the prediction is correct.

Solomon has attested to the strangeness of a man's ways with a maid, but the way of a maid being courted has always been a mystery to man. A girl dismissed her sweetheart with the statement that she could not think of marrying him until he had a few thousand dollars. A few months later she met him and asked him how much he had saved.

"Thirty-five dollars," he said.

"Well," she remarked with a blush. "I guess that's near enough."

One does not have to be a fanatic on any subject to be sincere and honest.

It used to be that the girls were looking for the man in a million. Now they're looking for the man with a million.

A famous duelist in France was sentenced to jail for six months for biting the nose of an antagonist. How he could do that when the fighting was done with swords is a mystery. They must have been trying to kiss one another.

Every man has his ups and downs. The man with the most ups gets there.

Mary Pickford says her Doug almost wept when she had her hair cut off. It seems to us a little grief for Doug will not hurt him as he seems to have things pretty nice—Mary for instance.

A man simply must retain his self-respect, and the meeker he is at home the worse he growls at the office girls.

Many a man who gets up in the morning feeling like a stadium goes to bed feeling like the old folks at home.

Let's throw away about two-thirds of the special weeks we celebrate and have just one week—a mind-your-own-business week.

There is a man in Sheriff Reynold's jail who says he cannot stay there very much longer because they put onions in the hash. We do not believe that as the prisoners eat up all the grub every day and there is none left for hash.

The prompt arrest of the half dozen or so men who lynched a colored man about in the heart of Houston, Texas has given a lot of Democratic delegates to the convention a bit more confidence. That lynching stuff don't sound very good to some people who go to places where they might start something if they get a chance. The Dems will be safe from lynching at least. Just the same half a dozen bootleggers tried to sell us rum on a Sunday morning at the site of the convention hall just as they were placing the steam shovel in place.

The bird who seldom pays until he has to is usually the one who expects the most when he does pay up under pressure. People who do not pay their bills are not so much in the estimation of any one.

A country school board was visiting a school, and the principal was putting pupils through their paces.

"Who signed Magna Charta, Robert?" he asked, turning to one boy.

"Please, sir, 'twasn't me," whimpered the youngster.

The teacher in disgust, told him to take his seat; but an old tobacco-chewing countryman on the board was not satisfied; so, after a well-directed aim at the cuspidor, he said: "Call that boy back. I don't like his manner. I believe he did do it."

There are fellows who could preach just as good a sermon as many preachers can preach but when one knows them the effect would not be as good as that the preachers would produce. Sermons go with preachers and that's all there is to it. There are crooks who can preach sermons but who takes any stock in them?

Every strong man can resist temptation until the right one comes along.

With a flying radius of six miles a day the housefly never gets beyond the first cup of consomme.

"I'll think it over and let you know" means NO!

It cost over a dollar a second to broadcast the recent Republican national convention. If the Dems repeat their New York stunt they will have to borrow money to get out of Texas on.

The man who used to select his drink now grabs off what's handy.

When one sees occasionally a girl without powder or paint she looks well of course, we mean naturally.

Don't be a cynic. It's stupid to think all chairs are baited with tacks just because you sat on one.

MIRACLE MONEY

The vexatious trouble with all miracle money is its tendency to swift fading away. It comes like magic, but it goes like a flying shadow. The paper fortune made in stocks, a land boom, the oil game or a mining rush is no exception. When the bottom drops out it is like awakening from a dream, the miracle wealth has slipped away. Money which is actually worked for and gained by adding something to the welfare of others, has a stay at home habit just the opposite from miracle money.

Tariff and Wages.
How Short a Platform?
The Power of Song.
Who Was Wrong? No Matter.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

Gov. Smith is said by his friends to oppose any free plank in the Democratic platform.

Governor of a state, with 6,000,000 inhabitants in one city, the governor knows the connection between high tariff and high wages. And he knows that an ounce of fact is worth many tons of theory—when the theory is inaccurate.

Mrs. Blair, Democratic vice chairman, demands a platform "so short that people will read it."

That is impossible, if she means THE PEOPLE. You could not write a platform in one column—no room for statesmen to turn around. Yet 80 in 100 will not finish a column.

The Democrats might write "WE promised to do our best," and then stop. That would be read and applauded. But such satisfying brevity is not in nature.

Birds sang, small mammals squeaked melodiously and men, probably, whistled to attract their ladies before there was any speech. Therefore, song, deeply planted in the brain, is more powerful than prose, and at Roanoke, Va., the political boss, fearing a local stampede to Smith, told the band it must not play "The Sidewalks of New York".

Why the words "Me and Mamie O'Rourke, we tripped the light fantastics on the Sidewalks of New York" should stampede a convention is not clear. But they might. "Yankee Doodle" has words even sillier. Think how that song stirs men when fifes play it.

Germans thresh over the war question "who was guilty?" The side that LOSES is guilty, always. Had the Germans won, which was impossible with their kaiser, they would not bother discussing guilt. Victory would make it unnecessary.

The French, stabilizing their franc at 25.52 to the dollar, realize that it does not much matter who is right or wrong, or who wins, as regards real results.

The man that owned $100 in French money, before the war, now owns $20. Every owner of pre-war French bonds has been eight cents out from each dollar. And that, after WINNING the war.

War does not pay, right or wrong, winner or loser. Another war would destroy our civilization, such as it is.

If men of power get those facts fixed in their minds war would stop. The would-be war maker would be treated like a mad dog, as he should be. Meanwhile, we should keep prepared, for you never can tell.

Lloyd George says that youth disillusioned by the war, turns from religion and the church.

Youth has done that often, old age occasionally. But youth and age return to religion. Illusion or faith, whichever you call it, is a necessity to 999 in 1,000.

Men ask themselves difficult questions and worry when there is no answer. Faith answers everything.

Voltaire's saying, "If there had been no God, it would have been necessary to invent one," describes human beings.

You may dissect the atom and the atom's electrons and nuclei. You may show a dozen radio-active transformations produce lead from other elements.

Still men will ask, "who made the atoms and the big guns? How did it all start? What keeps it going and whence did it come?"

The roulette wheel goes round at Monte Carlo. The ivory ball spins, finally settling into its place—red, black, odd, even, passe or manque, or zero.

And so men, spun by an invisible hand, fall into their places in this life.

Soon politicians will be solemnly addressing thousands of young "first voters". The young voters will listen, not hearing, and drop into the Republican or Democratic column, in accordance with the environment and teaching. How many in a thousand will vote, knowing WHY?

TIME

Man impatient to possess
All he wants of happiness
Works with feverish hands,
Striving for his whim today,
But Old Father Time says: "Nay!"
Toil and till your lands.
O'er that wall will ivy climb
Not tomorrow, but in time."

Man would have a maple tree
At a certain spot where he Wishes birds to nest.
"Now I'd have it!" is his cry,
"It may be that I shall die
Ere it's at its best."
Father Time says: "Trees are slow,
Some take twenty years to grow."

Father Time is never swift
In the making of a gift,
Slowly on he goes.
Man who wait till middle June
For the budding rose.
Unto all who would be great
Father Time says: "Work and wait."

Oh be patient, eager man,
Life is purposed to a plan,
Wisdom comes with years.
Time will teach you as you grow,
Everything you want to know
When the need appears.
Even mysteries sublime
You will understand in time.

BEYOND THINKING

At this season of the year the same thing will take place in a thousand places at once.

A gentleman in a stiff collar and a long-tailed coat will speak to several attentive rows of more or less protuberant ears above black graduating gowns.

And in each case he will say essentially the same thing:

"Think! Come to your own conclusions! Do your own thinking!"

This is fine advice as far as it goes. But it is kitten advice. It hasn't grown up. For the real trouble in thinking comes beyond thinking.

As soon as you begin to think for yourself you begin to have new ideas.

And what to do with a new idea is the problem.

Nobody cares if you think for yourself. That doesn't bother the world any. It is the new idea that you arrive at that differs from the current ideas held at par that brings trouble on your head.

If your thinking ends in ideas out of tune with your time they are treated like a strange dog in a canine-infested neighborhood.

If the learned gentlemen in the long-tailed coats could offer some practical advice upon meeting the problems that come in the "beyond thinking" stage, they would be of great assistance.

They rarely do, for it is the said fact that many of them belong to that cloistered class which views with alarm the approach of any new idea that contains the boisterousness of youth in its words.

The real liberty of a community or a country must be measured in terms of the security enjoyed by the minorities.

Where dissenters are squelched progress stops.

THROUGH ALL THE AGES—

Old age has thought that youth was going to the devil.

Man has never found anything that was a satisfactory substitute for labor.

We have seen that nothing is ever settled that is not settled right.

We have crucified and martyred the men who were ahead of their times.

New ideas have had to fight for their lives.

There have been those who longed regretfully for the good old days.

No man has ever permanently outwitted the Almighty.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

A FARM PROBLEM

Harvesting of this year's winter wheat crop will start soon in full force in the big wheat belt of the west, comprising Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, and efforts to recruit labor to gather the crop are already under way. The Labor Employment Service of the Department of Labor of the United States says officially that its field agents in the wheat belt indicate that many thousands of harvest hands will be needed soon, although labor demands will be less this year than heretofore due to the use of machinery in harvesting wheat.

In an effort to secure a full supply of labor for harvesting purposes, the Employment Service has spread broadcast thousands of posters, calling attention to the opportunities for employment in the wheat fields.

Permanent Federal-State offices in the wheat belt for recruiting, directing and distributing harvest hands as the harvest progresses are located at Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Muskogee and Enid, Oklahoma; at Wichita, Hutchinson, Salina and Topeka, Kansas; at Mitchell and Huron, South Dakota; at Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota; at Portland, Salem and Eugene, Oregon, and at Wenatchee, Tacoma, Yakima and Seattle, Washington.

Wheat harvesting starts in Texas in June, moves northward as the season advances, and continues in the extreme northern states into September. This is followed by threshing, corn husking, potato and apple picking, etc., which are said to afford prolonged employment to seasonal farm laborers.

The big wheat belt west of the Mississippi River has annually about 33,000,000 acres in winter and spring wheat, and fully half as much more in oats, rye and barley, requiring 100,000 or more men from the outside to harvest its small grain crops.

A report received by the Employment Service from George S. Tucker, director of the Farm Labor Division of the Department of Labor, at Kansas City, under date of June 11, stated that Texas and Oklahoma would require no outside labor to harvest their wheat crops. In an earlier report he stated that Texas sowed 2,829,000 acres in wheat last fall, but that in north central and west Texas, where the major portion of the acreage lies, dry weather has seriously injured the wheat and, until recent rains, the crop promised to be almost a total failure.

Kansas promises to harvest one of the greatest crops in its history, according to Mr. Tucker, who adds:

"More than 10,000,000 acres of wheat will go into harvest. The adoption of the combine in many of the heavy wheat counties of Kansas has reduced the outside labor requirements for the wheat harvest over past years, yet a personal harvest labor survey made by this division in the heavy wheat counties of central and western Kansas indicates that 18,000 hands will be employed in harvesting with headers and binders, manning the combines and hauling the grain from the combines. This includes a percentage for replacement which always occurs in normal harvest weather.

Bible Thought For Today

ALL TOGETHER—Ye that stand in the house of the Lord in the courts of the house of God. Praise the Lord for the Lord is good; sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.—Psalm 135; 2, 3.

FEAR IS BLIGHT.

One of the most destructive factors that can come into anyone's life is fear. Fear makes more lives unhappy than poverty or disease or loneliness. Furthermore fear may so blight the life of an individual as to bring on all of these other ills plus many others that are familiar to all of us.

I believe that the most important time to provide for the happiness of a person is during the first few years of his life.

Most children are trained to fear from babyhood. They are taught fear even before they are taught to love. I think it is a crime to tell ghost stories and horror tales to little children. I think it is a cowardly and cruel thing for a parent to take pleasure in the pop-eyed fear of his own child when the parent recites bogey-man tales and threatens to call the doctor or the policeman to make the child behave in a certain manner.

On a recent sunny afternon I took my little daughter Mary riding in a seaplane. She has seen planes sailing over the town as long as she can remember. She is eight years old. It occurred to me that she has been hearing a good deal about planes falling to the earth and into the sea and all that like an adult she might attach undue importance to such stories. Now of course I know that flying is not dangerous and I love to fly as a passenger. I do not want my children to learn fear.

We saw a seaplane soaring above us.

"Will it fall?" asked Mary.

"Well' said I supose we watch and see. And if it doesn't fall we'll take a ride in it. How's that?"

"Fine!"

So we went to the landing and induced the aviator to take us up for a ride. While we were lifting away from the water Mary wrote on a card to me: "Are we all right?"

"Then thought I was the time to make sure no fear of airplanes should beset this young woman. I wrote "Sure we're all right. Lots of fun isn't it?" And smiled.

That was a memorable day for Mary. She stood up in the open cockpit and looked over the side down upon the citys and towns and ships. She was thrilled by the beauty of the sight. When the plane banked tipping far over on her side she did not seem to notice it. I had to hold her by the shoulder to keep her from being spilled out. But fear was not even suggested. The pilot smiled confidently and Mary laughed hilariously.

Fear is deliberately or unthinkingly drilled into the minds of thousands of children and remains a blighting heritage to make their lives miserable.

Reunion Plans For Battery B

Arrangements Are Made For Annual Gathering At Mt. Jackson June 28

OTHER NEWS NOTES OF NORTH BEAVER

(Special To The News)

MT. JACKSON, June 26.—Plans for the Battery B reunion which will be held in the Mt. Jackson high school auditorium June 28 are practically complete. All of the committees have been selected and they are functioning under the capable chairmanship of W. S. Caskey.

An invitation will be extended not only to old soldiers of the Civil war but to veterans of the Spanish-American and World wars. The old soldiers who are unable to be present will be remembered in some manner that is now in formation by the committee.

The speaker who was to have been Congressman Ben Swick, has not been fully decided upon as it is not known for sure whether Mr. Swick will be able to appear due to his recent accident.

Mrs. Winters of the Almira Home in New Castle, has donated to the battery a number of Civil war relics and these along with Battery B, Spanish American and World war records will be placed in a specially built case in the school house permanently.

William S. Caskey is chairman, E. O. Reed vice chairman and Leora Hanna, secretary and treasurer of the organization that is taking care of the reunion details. Other committees follow:

Dining committee, Mrs. Harlan Wilson, chairman; Mrs. S. D. Fullerton and Mrs. James Kelso. Table committee, Lewis Gailey, chairman; Mrs. Edwin Ball and Mrs. Bert Douglas. Music committee, Loy Gwin and William H. McCullough. Decorating committee, Frances Fullerton, chairman; William Pitts, Ruth White, Leora Hanna and Sylvia Douglas. Reception comittee, Rev. Neil, Rev. Hammil and Rev. Haverfield. Transportation committee, Frank Paden chairman; William McGinnis and Charles Henderson. Program, C. F. Ball chairman; E. O. Reed and C .O. Martin. Finance, C. F. Ball, chairman; Joseph Gibson, Harrison Pitts and Alex McKim. Coffee, Sam Gibson, N. A. Craig and W. E. Patterson.

WEEDS RUIN CORN.

Unless the rain soon stops this year's corn crop will be ruined by weeds is the opinion of farmers of this district.

Steady rain for the past few weeks has made it practically impossible for the farmers to cultivate the fields and as a result the weeds are almost beyond checking.

MT. JACKSON NOTES.

Mrs. Joe Reed visited her mother of Harlansburg last week.

Mrs. Leona Hammond has returned from visiting friends in Warren, Pa.

Loy Gwin has gone to Pittsburgh where he will study music for the summer.

Miss Leora Hanna is recovering from a tonsil and adenoid operation last week.

Mrs. Hattie Lusk has moved into her new home on the improved highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mars and family were recent New Castle visitors.

Miss Helen La Rue Sipe who has been ill for the past few days has recovered.

Mrs. Charles Dennis has returned home after visiting in Kittaning for the past week.

Miss Ethel Weller will leave July 2 for State College where she will attend the summer session.

The condition of W. H. Ehle still remains critical. He has been ill the past week with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry and family of New Castle visited Sunday with Mrs. Flossie Andrews.

Mrs. Jerome Daugherty of Sunnyside has returned home after visiting relatives in Brookville, Pa.

Mrs. Dora Paden, formerly of Mt. Jackson, and now of New York city, is visiting with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip McQuiston and family of New Wilmington spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Underwood.

Miss Agnes Davidson, Mrs. W. A. Taylor and Mrs. Ida Paden were the guests of Mrs. J. Harlan Wilson Thursday afternoon.

Misses Ethel Mae and Ruth Barris have returned to their home in Sunnyside after a week's visit with friends in Ellwood City.

Miss Margaret Lusk who has been working in Youngstown O., for some time, visited Sunday with her mother Mrs. Hattie Lusk.

Kenneth McCracken was a week end visitor at Jamestown, Pa., at the home of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCracken.

The new garage of H. W. Sipe is nearing completion. They plan to build a new home soon.

Mrs. S. B. Brice and Miss Elizabeth Brice of Marion Junction, Ala., have returned home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Robert Hammil.

Charlotte and Arthur Seaman of Akron, O., have arrived in Sunnyside, where they will visit for some time with the W. A. Powers family.

Mrs. Hazel Hummason and Jack Hummason of Woodlawn and Mrs. J. D. Wiseman of Tampa, Fla., were Sunday guests of I. E. Swisher's.

Mrs. W. O. Wink and sons Harry and Rolland of Akron and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Adams of Lisbon, O., were recent visitors of the Lamson family.

Arthur T. Lusk went recently to Buffalo, N. Y., where he has accepted the position of packinghouse manager at one of the cement companies there.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Roberts and children, Herman and Betty of Conemaugh and Mrs. Lucy Evans of Evansburgh have returned home after spending the week end with Mrs. Sarah Roberts.

Despite the unsettled condition of the weather and roads the Children's Day exercises of the Bethel U. P. church were held Sunday evening. Approximately 50 children from all classes of the Sunday school participated.

Members of the O. M. T. Kensington met last week at the home of Miss Agnes Davidson. One hundred percent attendance marked the occasion. Mrs. Samuel Gibson and Mrs. Ruth McCord were visiting guests of the club at the meeting.

White House Personnel Changed By Mrs. Taft, Woman Given Charge

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

(This is a part of a series of wives and daughters of personages of presidential campaigns.)

By IDAH McGLONE GIBSON
Specially Written for Central Press and New Castle News.

Mrs. William Howard Taft, for some reason or other than that she was the "first lady of the land," made many friends among that old society group of Washington who had been dubbed "The Cliff Dwellers."

Perhaps it was because she was more reticent and aloof than many other wives of presidents that they or their ancestors had seen come and go.

Replaces Steward.

She was the one, however, who made a radical change in the personnel of the household staff. She substituted a housekeeper for the steward as the head of the domestic force.

From time out of mind, prior to the advent of the Tafts, the domestic arbiter of the White House had been a man, designated officially as "The Steward" and paid by the government a salary of $1,800 a year.

Mrs. Taft, deciding that a woman should be supreme in this department, changed the old order of things and installed a housekeeper, who had the direction of affairs in the 40-foot kitchen, the big laundry and the supervision of all the maids.

This woman, a Mrs. Jaffrey, stayed through the Wilson regime, but according to her book, written a short time after Calvin Coolidge was inaugurated, left because of some misunderstanding over the hams provided for official dinner.

When Mrs. Taft was first an occupant of the White House she was interviewed for a large paper and, although she was very non-committal, the feminine reporter who had the assignment wrote for her paper what she considered a more than flattering story.

When Judge Taft was again nominated by the Republican party at the time of the break between him and Theodore Roosevelt, everyone, including the girl reporter, seemed to think she was the logical person to get another story from Mrs. Taft.

Retort Courteous.

Perhaps she was a little too cocksure, for, as she advanced toward the lady, she was met with no recognition whatever.

Somewhat surprised she thought she would recall herself to Mrs. Taft, and remarked: "I interviewed you some time ago for a metropolitan paper. I thought you might possibly remember me."

Mrs. Taft did not. She only looked at the impertinent young woman and said:

"I meet so many newspaper persons, you know."

minority seem dangerous, perverted and wrong to our way of thinking.

No one has a monopoly upon truth and if everyone has the opportunity to try to convert others to his way of thinking, out of the conflict of ideas the right will emerge.

Freedom to preach any honest idea arrived at by individual thinking is an ideal worth working to attain.

One of the rarest things to find is hospitality of mind. I do not mean license of belief or laxity of principle. But I mean an entire willingness to hear all that may be said upon the other side.

After the Civil War there was great intolerance in the North. I remember when it came to me through meeting some good Southern people that a man could believe in the South's cause thoroughly and be just as honest as I was.

It is not so much the matter of your belief, but the manner of it.

One of the main rules for us to follow is to agree to nothing simply on authority. Let us be satisfied in our own minds. The best belief is worked out from personal experience. Perhaps that is what Tennyson meant when he said:

"There is more truth in honest doubt Believe me than in half the creeds."

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

UNTIL YESTERDAY

There are many things that were important—until yesterday. Those who get somewhere in this world are those who know how to drop what was truth yesterday and who have the courage to take on new truth today. Let's not deny the new thing simply because it contradicts what we thought was truth. Consistency is not something to be proud of unless you know that the facts have not changed.

EXPECTING

A certain typewriter salesman on the Pacific coast wrote back to the home office: "I didn't sell all the typewriters I expected to last month—but, then, I didn't expect to." We all have to be salesmen of something or other, and the reason we don't do better at it is often our mere lack of expectancy. Nothing so quickly communicates itself to a prospect as your own confidence, your own expectation, your own belief in the facts you are stating.

INVINCIBLE

Henley, the British poet, wrote:

"It matters not how straight the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul."

Henley was himself a courageous man. In these great lines he was both right and wrong, but principally right. Man is not always the master of his fate, but he is, or can be, the captain of his soul.

The greatest discovery he can make is that there is within him something unbeatable, invincible. Once he comes to believe that there is within him something super-to and beyond his hardships and discouragements, life cannot defeat him.

"HARD"

When you are really "hard" you are all through. Life is not worth while to a man or woman who has really become hard. Beware of losing the ability to be shocked by the happenings of life. When you have reached that stage you have encased yourself in a shell and have lost contact with life. When the time comes you have no tears to shed, it is time to be ashamed.

FIGHTING

It is not strange that peace comes so slowly to the world. Men have fought too long and love to fight too well. There will be folks in heaven who will play no music. They will prefer to throw harps at the angels.

NOT OUR BUSINESS

Perhaps there is nothing we ought to call to mind oftener than the conviction that it is not our business to make rules for the personal conduct of the other fellow. He has to settle matters for himself, if he is of age. He is responsible.

Fireman Owes His Life To Thick Lens In Pair Of Goggles

ROCHESTER, Pa., June 26.—Pennsylvania railroad police are investigating the shooting and wounding of W. L. Williams, 28, 1300 Elm street, Canton, O., fireman on a freight train, at the Leetsdale crossing last night.

The heavy lens of the goggles saved the life of Williams by deflecting the bullet. A furrow was cut along the forehead by the course of the bullet. The injury was given attention at the emergency hospital at Conway yards.

Police say the freight had stopped at Leetsdale and had split to permit traffic at a crossing. A man, said to have been intoxicated, engaged in an altercation with a brakeman about the halted train. The brakeman left. A short time later the unidentified man ran back toward the engine and fired one shot and then fled. He had mistaken Williams for the man with whom he had the argument.

Striped Cucumber Beetle Is Found

In a number of Lawrence county gardens, the striped cucumber beetle has been found, states County Agent H. R. McCulloch.

The beetle works on the underside of the plant leaves, says Mr. McCulloch, and once it gets a fair start, the complete crop is lost, for the beetles that are now working will lay eggs, and they in turn will become worms, attacking the roots of the plant.

Recommended as the control for this pest is one pound of calcium arsenate to five pounds of gypsum or land plaster, to be dusted on the under sides of the cucumber leaves.

23 YEARS OF DIVIDENDS ON P.-O. SYSTEM PROPERTY

The Diary of a New Yorker
by CLARK KINNAIRD

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, June 26.—Helping visiting women sow tame oats is an established profession in New York, the city of strange occupations. There are several bureaux devoted to supplying women escorts for women visitors or chaperons for parties of young girls.

Most of the clientele of the bureaux are middle-aged and elderly women. Some of them are alone in the city and unable to enjoy solitary sight-seeing; others are playing hookey from families that were disposed to show them Grant's Tomb and the Woolworth building when what they really wanted to see was Greenwich Village and Harlem.

The women on the staffs of the bureaux are all married and between 35 and 40 years old. For managers of the bureaux quickly found that even grandmothers prefer as companions young appearing women who are smartly dressed and festive.

There also are agencies which undertake to supply women companions for lonely young men visitors to the city who have character references.

New Yorkers find it convenient to turn over visiting Aunt Hettie or Joe's mother or Cousin Sue to one of the bureaux for entertainment.

New York speakeasies are to be closed on Sunday. Not by the police, however. Bartenders want a day off.

New York, June 26. — While the British shop is rapidly becoming Americanized, the American shop is going in for the British way of doing things. London stores now emulate the organization and methods of New York shops. In turn, New York shops are copying the sociable methods of British department stores. Tea is now served in Fifth avenue shops to all customers who come in between 3 and 5, and clerks are encouraged to build up personal followings. Fifth avenue shops also curtain their windows nights and Sundays, just as British stores do.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

THE KICK THAT CRIPPLED JAGUAR

"Whitie the cat had acted just as Jaguar was acting when he sprang upon my poor mother. We Bobolinks shivered again. We wanted to close our eyes, but we could not. Ostrich was watching the Jaguar, too. He had placed himself directly in front of Jaguar and at the very second that the great cat rose into the air Ostrich struck out with his foot. It hit the Jaguar right in the side and down to earth the great cat fell with a crash.

"But Jaguar didn't lie there long. Gathering himself together, he tried it again and this time he plunged straight at Oliver Ostrich. But Oliver was a match for him, and bang! With a second blow of his foot he felled the creature and this time the sharp claw on his foot had torn a hole in the Jaguar's hide. Now Jaguar had had enough of it. His growl turned to a groan. Ostrich made as if he was going to stamp upon him, but before he could touch him the cat drew himself out of reach and crawled off into the thicket as fast as he could go, his tail dragging behind him.

"'There, I guess I have taught Jaguar, the old sneak, a lesson he will not soon forget,' Oliver Ostrich declared, shaking his plumes and looking as fresh and rested as though nothing had happened. 'I'll bet you he will not attack me again in a hurry. Hello there, Llama. Why didn't you run away as I told you to?'

"Sure enough, Llama had stayed right where he was.

"'I couldn't let you save my life like that and run off without thanking you,' answered he. 'I shall never make fun of you again, and any time Oliver Ostrich needs a friend he can call upon me. I have never been so ashamed of myself. To think that I talked so rudely to you and when your turn came to get even with me you protected me at the risk of your own life. I shall never forget it, Oliver, never!'

"It was plain to be seen that Oliver Ostrich did not want to be thanked for what he had done. He fidgeted about uneasily.

"'Oh that is all right, Llama, old chap,' at last said Oliver Ostrich. 'I would have done as much for anyone, you know. Besides I never held your treatment against you. If you didn't like me you coudn't help it. I don't like lots of folk myself and I can't tell why. Forget it! And if you are willing to be friends I am sure I am. But don't stay around here. Jaguar is laid up for a while, but his mate may be standing by, just waiting for a chance to revenge his beating. And since she knows she can't make me suffer she will take out her anger on the nearest thing. If you happen to be the unlucky one it is all up with you'."

Put Steel Covered Shoes On Prisoner

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—Wearing steel-covered shoes with heavy weights and chains attached, John P. Carroll, who escaped from the Federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., in 1926 after serving 8 months of a 14-month term will be taken back there.

Two federal guards brought the non-escape shoes today. The shoes will not prevent the prisoner from walking slowly but if he tries to run the weights crash against his ankles.

Following Carroll's arrest here on a charge of passing a worthless check, detectives recovered $150,000 in loot he had hidden in this city, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Wilmington, Del., and Avalon, N. J. He admitted series of robberies and tried to bribe detectives offering them $50,000 to let him escape.

Lawrence County To Share In State Aid Funds Re-allocated

Lawrence county will receive $10,432 of state aid road funds, under a re-allocation of funds just made by the department of highways. State aid funds must be matched by a similar amount by counties in the construction of roads. Fifteen counties of the state lost all or part of their shares of the $5,000,000 appropriated last year by failing to take advantage of the provisions under which the money is given. This left $874,345 in the fund for distribution among the counties which did receive money, and Lawrence county's share is the amount given above. County commissioners have no plans as yet as to what will be done with the money.

Senator Couzens Seeks Dismissal Of $500,000 Suit

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Pleading senatorial immunity, Senator Couzens (R) of Michigan, today had before the district supreme court a motion to dismiss a libel suit for $500,000 filed against him by H. P. Cochrane, a tax expert.

Couzens sought to end the action by a motion to quash service. He said he was served with notice of the suit during the last session of Congress.

Cochrane asserted that Couzens made slanderous statements relative to his business methods.

Will Be Several Weeks Before Crew Can Be Rescued

Hope Is Given Up Of Rescuing Some Of Crew Of Gen. Nobile

(International News Service)

OSLO, Norway, June 26.—It may be possibly three or four weeks before the remaining members of the Nobile party and Lieutenant E. Lundberg can be rescued from the ice floe off Foyne island, according to a radiogram from the steamship Quest at Virgo Bay this afternoon.

No news has been received here of the reported rescue of Natale Ceccioni and so far as known there are still five of Nobile's companions marooned on the ice along with Lieutenant Lundberg.

In three or four weeks, it is believed, the ice will have melted sufficiently to enable a hydroplane to descend.

Little hope remains of finding the three members of the Malmgren party alive. It is believed their provisions were exhausted by June 21. This was the party which started out over the ice after the Italia disaster on May 26 to try to find land.

DELEGATES HOPE TO AVOID CLASH LIKE 1924 BATTLE

about that. But faced here with the united opinion of the South and West Democracy against it, they are prepared to yield their views and to accept "anything reasonable" along the prohibition line that is offered. The phrase was used by one of the wettest of the Smith captains.

Similarly the extreme drys would like to hammer into the platform a plank endorsing the "moral righteousness' and the "moral principle" of prohibition. They are not likely to get that. The Smith people are rigidly opposed to that and majority opinion here apparently supports their position.

Skirmish Inevitable

In the end, after the inevitable skirmish which the real leaders on both sides are hoping to make short and snappy, a law enforcement plank as strong or stronger than that which the Republicans adopted at Kansas City, probably will be agreed upon.

"Governor Smith's views on prohibition are well known," said one of his eastern spokesmen. "But Governor Smith stands for law enforcement and so far as we are concerned there is no objection to a platform declaration that will pledge the party to enforce every law on the statute books."

A strong law enforcement plank, then would be acceptable to the eastern wets and would placate the southern and western drys. Of course, the radical fringe on both sides will be dissatisfied and may yet upset the apple cart and promote a bitter fight. But the chances at the opening of the convention today appeared against it.

The practical politicians in the convention and the hard-headed leaders who are looking ahead to November are agreed that a strong law enforcement plank is the best way out of the dilemna.

"Then," said one of them, somewhat cynically, "we can point to the plank in the dry states, and to the candidate in the wet states. Everybody ought to be satisfied."

Moody to Lead

The dry fight will be led by Dan Moody, the young red-headed governor of Texas, who feels morally obligated to wage a fight because of the instructions given the Texas delegation by the state convention. He will be supported by a number of southern leaders, among them Josephus Daniels, who, as secretary of the navy during the Wilson administration, dried up the navy. Daniels takes the position that any evasion on the prohibition question would injure the party in years to come.

"A moist plank or even an evasive plank," he said today, "would be ruinous. It would take us 50 years to regain the position we have held in the past. It would mean a permanent loss to the Democratic party of all the dry states. It would be positively fatal, if an effort is made to put in a wet plank we'll stay here all summer and fight it."

Inasmuch as the Smith leaders, such as Frank Hagle of New Jersey, Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York and George Brennan of Illinois, have abandoned any idea of fighting for a wet plank—if they ever really entertained the notion—Daniels' threat to "stay here all summer and fight it" seemed superfluous.

Farm People Here

Only one other plank in the platform did there appear to be much debate. That is on farm relief. Most of the southerners in Congress voted for the McNary-Haugen bill and hence it is likely that this convention will take a considerably stronger stand for the farmer than did the Republicans at Kansas City. The farm people who unsuccessfully tried to crash the Kansas City convention are here in force, making good their threat that they would come to Houston if turned down at Kansas City. They have been welcomed with open arms to this hot, swarming city.

"Give us a dry plank and a real farm plank and we will win this election," said Sen. William J. Harris of Georgia. His opinion reflected the general opinion of southern leaders on the ground here.

Whether there will be a first ballot nomination of Governor Smith depends upon the action of several favorite sons—principally Pomerene in Ohio, Woollen in Indiana and Ayres in Kansas.

The Ohio caucus resulted in a decision to support Pomerene on the first ballot, but on the second the 48 delegates will go 42 for Smith and six for Reed. Before balloting time begins, however, it is possible the plan to vote for Pomerene will be abandoned.

Eighteen of Woollen's votes in Indiana will be tallied for Smith on the second ballot, if not on the first, according to the delegation leaders.

The Kansas delegation is debating whether to present Ayres' name. If not Smith will get most of the delegates on the first ballot.

The Smith leaders are taking no steps to force a first ballot decision. To all inquiries they have replied that they do not care, that this decision is strictly up to the state leaders. If the favorite sons wish to withdraw and throw it to Smith on the first ballot, well and good; if not, later will do just as well. The Smith idea is, firstly, harmony, and, lastly, harmony.

They are taking a similar view of the vice presidency. They are backing, ostensibly at least, no particular candidate. Supporters of Cordell Hull of Tennessee, Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, Evans Woollen of Indiana have all gone to them this week eliciting support, and have found it.

The betting today on the vice presidency, however, favored Senator Robinson.

North Street Hi-Y Will Play Sharon

Game Is Called At Colonial Field For Saturday Afternoon At 2:30

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Colonial field, the North Street Junior Hi-Y baseball team will meet the Sharon Juniors, declares John C. Leonard, boys' secretary at the Y.

All members of the North Street team are asked to report to Coach Dave Harris shortly before game time. A return game will be played at Sharon in the near future.

Opinion Rendered In Liberty Clay Products Trouble

Judge Hildebrand handed down an opinion this morning in the case of Osborne Mitchell against The Liberty Clay Products company in which a controversy arose over the payment of interest when the plants were taken over by preferred stockholders.

In the opinion Judge Hildebrand holds that interest should be paid on $33,183.59 from July 11, 1927. The plants of the Liberty Clay Products company are located, one at Volant and the other along the Neshannock creek, a short distance north of this city.

They are now being operated by the stockholders.

Two More Prisoners Are Placed In Jail

Lazar Koracer and John Kekowske were placed in the county jail by Constable Lawrence Thompson of South New Castle boro last night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly at the house of George Koresky. The latter was absent and was not arrested.

Sheriff H. M. Reynolds reports that there are now 55 prisoners in the Lawrence county jail. It is expected that the number will be diminished when sentence court is held tomorrow unless there are a large number of jail sentences.

State Health Department Gives Fireworks Warning

"Prepared to celebrate the Fourth of July, a boy of 12 a few days ago filled his pocket with giant torpedoes and then fell with such force that the torpedoes exploded, tearing a hole nine inches in diameter in his flesh. While this can be classified as a freak accident it nevertheless serves to attract attention to the inevitable Fourth of July casualties," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, secretary of health, today.

"It may be interesting to note that in the past 20 years 61,000 men, women and childhen have been killed, maimed or injured in Fourth of July accidents—a rather large price to pay for the celebration of the birthday of even so great a nation as the United States.

"While municipal ordinances in the larger cities of the commonwealth forbid the sale and use of explosives within their borders, the fact remains that nearly every conceivable form of fireworks can be readily purchased outside the city limits along the main highways. Thus the intended protection to children is largely lost.

"While it is very natural to accede to childish importunities, one's enthusiasm should not overcome judgment. Particularly is this required when faced with the roadside stand that appealingly displays powder in the guise of firecrackers and in other forms, the use of which may maim and even slay. Patriotism, after all, begins at home; and an enthusiasm which permits small children to purchase powder goods along the highway that are forbidden in the city is, to say the least, an extremely poor manifestation of love of country, not to mention love for one's youngsters.

"Some years ago lock-jaw took a tremendous toll because of the so-called toy pistol. Just remember that any kind of a gun which will shoot blank cartridges is far from being a toy. And the cheaper it is, the more likely is the trigger-spring to be weak, thus causing premature and unlooked for explosions with their dangerous flesh wound consequences.

"It may seem a bit arbitrary to deny one's offspring the dubious, though undoubtedly exciting experience of 'playing with fire,' but if at the end of the day it is a question of an injured or mortally wounded child against a happy and healthy one, then there is no sound argument against the safety side.

"Therefore, under no circumstances permit small children to play with firecrackers or fireworks; if this sort of thing must be a part of the Fourth of July celebration then keep the children at a safe distance from them.

"In the event of this warning being disregarded and a powder burn, however slight, resulting, give the victim the advantage of immediate medical advice. Tetanus, commonly known as lock-jaw, may result if this suggestion is not followed.

"Be a patriot by all means, teach the children the meaning of Fourth of July and permit them to enjoy it. But let the firecrackers alone and manage the fireworks yourself. Be safe and sane and sensible, rather than foolhardy, over-enthusiastic—and sorry."

LIFE GUARD ON DUTY AT BEACH

Bill Hill Says Alec Samuels Is In Error In Statements Made On Monday

That the drowning of John Economidis Sunday afternoon at Hill's Beach was entirely accidental and under the circumstances the man could not have been saved is the statement of Bill Hill, Sr., and Bill Hill, Jr., made this morning at the NEWS office.

Mr. Hill, Sr., declares that he had all of the instruments necessary for getting the body out of the water, and he also states that his son, Bill Hill, Jr., who is at the beach constantly, is a senior life guard.

"I believe that Alex Samuels was in error, when he stated in Monday's NEWS that the man could have been saved if the Flying Squadron had been notified immediately. At the beach at the time of the accident, we had five of the best swimmers in Lawrence county. Jack Hulme, the leader of the squadron, was also called from Cascade Park. The police were called. Nothing was left undone. Yet Mr. Hulme, who is perhaps one of the strongest authorities in the county, said that the man could not be rescued, as he had fallen in below the dam, and the water was particularly dangerous."

Driver Of Car Is Exonerated In Mastren Death

Inquest Is Held In Death Of New Castle Man In Accident At Meadville

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 26.—Joe Dominic, driver of the automobile from which Charles A. Mastren of New Castle was killed last Friday, was exonerated of all blame by a jury at an inquest held by Coroner W. C. Byham. The testimony showed that Mastren was sitting in the back seat of the car. The road was rather rough and when the car went into a depression the car skidded, Mastren was thrown out and his skull fractured.

There was a report that Dominic disappeared after the accident, which was found to be incorrect. He remained at the scene of the accident, but was so overcome by grief that he had to be taken to his home in an ambulance.

David Tino of New Castle was present at the inquest in behalf of the victim's family.

CAMPER IS DROWNED; CHUMS ARE JAILED

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., June 26.—Paul Seder, 32, was drowned in the Ohio river while rowing from here to the Ohio side in a boat with two other men, who later were arrested on charges of being intoxicated.

The authorities were told that the three men had been drinking at a river camp before setting out in the boat. Seder's companions, Y. Plesko and B. Frank, were floundering in the water and near drowning when they were rescued. Neither was able to tell the authorities anything about the accident.

Plesko and Frank were locked up and will be summoned before the coroner.

ELECTRICIAN FALLS 70 FEET TO DEATH

FREEPORT, June 26.—Howard Waiter, 21, of Mongahela, an employe of the Duquesne Light Company of Pittsburgh, was killed instantly when he fell 70 feet from a pole on which he was repairing a transformer.

Mayor Walker Is Given Ovation By Houston Citizens

(International News Service)

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—Jimmy Walker hit the convention city at 12:30 o'clock Monday with a bang that made a dent in Houston such as no other arrival has.

Union station and the streets about it were choked with Texans, shouting and cheering, all anxious to welcome the breezy mayor of New York, second in command of the Al Smith forces. So thick were the crowds that police had to fight a lane, sometimes using fists, for the mayor to get to the limousine waiting to carry him to his hotel.

Over 3000 Crippled Children At Rotary Club Clinic Since Work Was Started

Since the crippled children's committee of the New Castle Rotary Club has been functioning, 3,014 children have been in attendance at the clinics, reported J. Lee Calahan, who is chairman of the committee, at the regular meeting of the New Castle Rotary club which took place at The Castleton Monday noon.

Following is the complete report of the committee:

"During the year of July 1, 1927, to June 25, 1928, ten clinics have been held, with 935 in attendance.

"Number of clinic operations performed, 11.

"Number of private operations: 4.

"Number of charity operations: 2.

"Three operations paid for by Fred L. Rentz.

"One operation paid for by family; hospital free.

"Six free ward patients: no fee to hospital.

"Through the efforts of this committee, five children have been committed to Polk Institute.

"One patient, Bedia Albert, has been in bed at the Shenango Valley hospital since March 2, 1926, having a tubercular condition of the joints.

"Philip Sedelick has also been a patient at the hospital since March 1, 1927. This boy could be discharged at any time if a home could be found for him. The committee has made a number of efforts, but has been unsuccessful in locating a home.

"There have been some very worthwhile results obtained in the last year and the clinic has been very successful.

"Dr. J. L. Wallace has been assisted at each clinic by Drs. B. E. Sankey and W. C. Burchfield of New Castle, Dr. Smizer of New Wilmington, and Dr. Jesse Cooper who takes care of the X-ray work. Dr. Sankey takes care of the patients at the hospital and at his office between the clinics.

"At the Christmas season the crippled children's committee, with the assistance of the members of the Rotary club, distributed clothing, candy, food and toys to 200 crippled children. Two Christmas trees were trimmed and placed in the children's wards of the Shenango Valley hospital on Christmas eve.

"The committee desires to thank Alex Wright for the trees; Billy Glenn for pop corn; Ed Duff for apples; Dr. H. H. Rosenthal for dolls; W. J. Offutt company for toys; Herman Hess for toys; McFate and Lockhart for candy; Rex Patch for candy, toys and coal; Allen's Market for candy; Paisley's Drug Store for candy; Louis Round for clothing; and the other members of the club who contributed money, clothing, toys, et cetera, of which the committee does not have a record.

"The committee also desires to thank Fred L. Rentz, for his contribution of $500. This money was distributed in $10 allotments to 50 worthy families. The distribution became quite a problem for the committee to decide, as it became necessary to investigate some 200 families to determine who the 50 worthy ones were. This investigation was conducted by Rex Patch, Herman Hess, Howard Richards and the chairman. It required about a week's time. Some very pathetic conditions were found, but only the really worthy families were given an order by the investigators, which was presented to Mr. Rentz at his office and cashed by him.

"Through the kindness of the fellow Rotarians, 200 or more children were made happy Christmas morning. If each member could have visited these homes with the committee, I am sure that he would have been well paid in seeing the joy of children who otherwise would have had a sad Christmas morning.

"Through the efforts of the boys' work committee, the crippled children's committee and the cooperation of the Rotary club, 93 crippled and underprivileged boys were permitted to go to the Boy Scout camp last summer for one week. Any Rotarian who took time out to go to the Boy Scout camp during the crippled children's period will agree that is one of the finest pieces of work performed by the club in the past year.

"The crippled children's committee is glad to report that every member of the club is now a member of the Pennsylvania Society for Crippled Children. It has been through hard work and the influences of this committee that this club is now relieved from paying for the crippled children's work. Several thousands of dollars have been expended by Lawrence county since the committee has taken advantage of the crippled children's law, which makes it possible to take care of more children than could be done by an individual club.

"At the present time the committee has on the waiting list 15 cases to be presented to the court. During the past year, data has been amassed and investigation made on 196 cases. Eleven have been presented to the court and accepted for operations or treatment; 12 have been presented and rejected by the court; 184 have been rejected by the committee after investigation.

"The first appropriation by the department of welfare was made in 1927, in which Lawrence county received a share of the $55,000 state appropriation.

"At the present time there are 12 counties in the state where no crippled children work is being done; 19 counties where one clinic, at least, was held; and 29 counties where constructive work is now under way. Lawrence county was the first to organize and to take advantage of the crippled children's law.

"At the present time it is estimated that there are 27,000 crippled children yet remaining in Pennsylvania and records show that 50 per cent are not yet taken care of. A new hospital has just been constructed at Elizabethtown for bone tuberculosis at a cost of $250,000. Other buildings are being contemplated: one at Wilkes-Barre with a 20 bed orthopedic ward, to cost $55,000. The Rotary club of Wilkes-Barre raised at one dinner meeting $6,039 to be applied to the equipping of this ward.

"At the Lawrence county clinic, since it was started, the attendance has totalled 3,014.

"Seventy six of the Pennsylvania Rotary clubs contributed to the crippled children's work. There are 80 others that did not contribute.

"The committee wishes to thank the staff of the Shenango Valley hospital, and especially the staff of nurses for their splendid cooperation."

"RING! RING FOR LIBERTY!"

The old bell-ringer waiting in the steeple of the State House, Philadelphia, where the Continental Congress is in session to consider the advisability of adopting the Declaration of Independence. At last the long-expected word comes! Congress has accepted the document. The bell-ringer's small grandson shouts the word, and a moment later the tolling of what is henceforth to be known as the Liberty Bell announces the glad tidings to the city. This is the story of Henry Mosler's painting reproduced in beautiful color gravure next Sunday in THE WORLD.

We are an idealistic people, but a reform hasn't much chance if it threatens to interfere with business.

Rooms On Two Floors Of New Junior High Assume Finished Form

Within the next week, the east wing of the new George Washington Junior High school will be so near completion that almost all work will be suspended on it, is the belief of the painters and carpenters who Monday afternoon were engaged in putting the finishing touches on the various class rooms.

The rooms both on the second and first floors, are practically finished due to the efforts of a large staff of men, who, for many weeks, have been rushing the job towards completion. The plastering has been completed, the window glass is in the windows, doors have been hung, and in many cases, black boards have been put on the walls.

Work of plastering the huge auditorium, which was begun a short time ago, is now progressing rapidly. The whiting is being applied to the stage proscenium arch, and soon it will have been completed. The workmen plan to start work on the block of seats, poured out of solid concrete, which make up the balcony of the auditorium. Electricians are also getting ready to place the fixtures as soon as painters have completed varnishing all of the wood work.

On the second floor of the structure, both in the east and west wings, work has progressed so far that the class rooms are almost completed. At the present time, men are working in the gymnasium, getting ready to apply finished plaster to the ceiling.

All of the stairways have been finished, even down to the newelling and hand rails, and attention is now being concentrated on the main entrance to the building, which also will be finished in the near future.

One of the features of the new school will be a model apartment, to be used by the domestic science classes, which is now almost completed.

On the exterior of the building, all of the brickwork has been done with the exception of a few spots where the supports for the hoists made it impossible. As soon as the hoists are removed, then the facade will be complete.

It is expected that the new Euclid avenue school will be ready for the occupancy of the school district in the early part of August. As yet, no furniture has been placed in the various rooms.

Mercer Boy Is Hold-Up Victim

Knocked Unconscious In Mercer And Carried To Field Along Jackson Center Road

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., June 26.—Mercer county officials are investigating the unusual hold-up that was reported here last night by Luke Flannery, a fourteen-year-old boy.

Flannery, who is a son of Mrs. Mary Flannery of Erie street, says that he was enroute home yesterday, going through Strawberry alley, near the court house, with $14 in his possession. He passed an auto, and that was the last he remembers until he woke up in a field on the Jackson Centre road, a few hours later.

He had been struck over the head with something, and knocked unconscious, authorities believe.

He was robbed of the money.

Pomerene Releases Ohio Delegation

Atlee Pomerene Tells Delegates To Use Own Judgment In Casting Ballots

(International News Service)

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26. — Ex-Senator Pomerene of Ohio, "Favorite Son" presidential candidate, has virtually released the Ohio delegation from its pledge of support, it was learned today.

"We have a perfect understanding with Senator Pomerene," said H. G. Brunner, state chairman. "I talked with him about the entire situation and he said that he wished the delegation to use its best judgment.

"Ohio's entire vote, perhaps with one exception, will be cast for him on the first ballot. After that 45 votes may go to Governor Smith."

Russian Flier To Hunt Nobile's Men

(International News Service)

RIGA, June 26.—The Russian aviator Babushikin on board the Soviet Ice Breaker Maligin hopes to fly to Cape Leigh Smith at which point he will hop off to seek the missing members of the Nobile expedition, according to a radiogram from the Maligin today. The plane has been equipped with skiis to enable a landing on the ice.

The Maligin reported no word from Captain Roald Amundsen and complete ignorance of the whereabouts or fate of the Amundsen party.

Desertion Charged In Divorce Cases

Married one day and deserted the next was the experience of Mrs. Sarah E. Ward, according to an application filed in county court for divorce from her husband, Thomas A. Ward. She was married in 1921.

Felix Skoczylas has filed an application for divorce from his wife, Helen Skoczylas, on the grounds of desertion. They were married in January, 1918, and lived together until March, 1918.

Special Message.

An appreciative audience heard Rev. L. L. Matthews of the Wampum Baptist church Monday evening in the Union Baptist church, Grant street. Rev. Matthews spoke on "Where Woman Shines Best."

This evening he will preach on the subject "Wanted—A Man." Mrs. Elizabeth Morris will preside.

Sunshine Kensington.

Sunshine Kensington club met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Alston on Grove street. Mrs. Mollie Johnson presided and Mrs. Katherine Engs led the devotionals.

The evening was spent socially. Mrs. Ada Boycan of Steubenville, O., who is the house guest of her cousin, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, gave a very interesting talk on club work.

Other guests were Mrs. Agnes Alexander, Mrs. Ollie Miller, Mrs. Alice Williams and Mrs. Cora King.

The home was nicely decorated with roses and peonies. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Cora King, Mamie Mann, Eleanora and Ollie Lott, Anna, Emma and Gertrude Taylor. The place of the next meeting will be announced later.

WELFARE LEAGUE

Cicic, Social and Welfare League met Monday evening in St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church. A very interesting program had been prepared by the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Kreba Tilghman. Outstanding features included a number of selections by the Bethel church orchestra and the splendid solo by Mrs. Inez Nelson.

Dr. G. W. Garnett, Rev. A. C. Bell and Mrs. Lettie B. Williams gave timely talks. After the program the president, Rev. W. H. Hodge took charge of the meeting. The League continues to grow. Every meeting is attended by an interested audience. Rev. E. C. West of Columbus, O., was an out of town visitor. He gave a splendid talk on national welfare work among the race groups of which he is a prime factor.

Four new members were enrolled. The league will meet Monday evening, July 9 at the Bethel A. M. E. church.

Walnut Street Boys Reported Missing

Father of Leroy Shoaff aged 9 of 203 North Walnut street has asked the assistance of the police in locating the boy who disappeared from his home last night and had not returned today.

Detective John Young and Officer Harper investigated and found that he was supposed to be with Paul Zeigler, aged 13 of 219 North Walnut street, who is also away from home. The Shoaff boy was dressed in gray trousers, light colored waist, tennis shoes and was wearing no stockings when he left home.

Two Soldiers Are Badly Injured

Truck Gets Out Of Control And Upsets On Hill Near Allentown

(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., June 26.—Two soldiers with a truck load of ammunition en route from Ft. Hoyle, Md., to the Pennsylvania National Guard camp at Tobyhanna, were seriously injured today when their truck got out of control and upset at the foot of Shimersville hill, about 10 miles from here today.

The injured were Harold Stanley, 22, of Hagerstown, Md., and Esse Phelts, 21, of Grimesland, N. C. Both men were badly bruised and sustained broken arms and legs. They were brought to the Allentown hospital here, where slight hope is held for their recovery.

The truck was loaded with ammunition for the National Guard camp when it lost a tire on the steep hill and ran away down the steep incline. Luckily the ammunition failed to explode when the truck overturned.

A third soldier on the truck escaped injury.

Charge Tear Bombs Used To Disperse Rossiter Meeting

(International News Service)

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., June 26.—State police and deputy sheriffs used tear bombs to disperse a meeting at the Little Magyar church at Rossiter, near here, it was charged today by officers of the United Mine Workers.

Officials of the Clearfield bituminous Coal Co. declared the meeting held Sunday night was in violation of the "hymn-singing" injunction granted by Indiana county court.

The little church at Rossiter was in the national spotlight when the senatorial coal strike investigating committee joined with striking miners in singing.

TIRE STOLEN.

H. H. Rosenthal, 3 Wallace avenue, reported to the police Monday that a tire, cover and rim, also a flashlight and tire carrier had been stolen from his machine the previous night.

Some of the so-called million dollar moving pictures would be more interesting if they merely photographed the million dollars.

Name Artists For Course Here

Talent Committee Selects Artists To Appear At Cathedral

DATES WILL BE ANNOUNCED LATER

Although definite dates for the concerts have not been set as yet, the list of artists who will appear on the program of the New Castle Civic Music Association during the fall and winter months is announced this morning by Herbert Peairs, president of the association, following confirmation of the selection of the talent committee by the Civic Concert Service of Chicago.

The artists who will appear in New Castle include: Cyrena Van Gordon, prima donna mezzo contralto of the Chicago Civic Opera Company; Jose Ehcaniz, pianist; Paul Kochanski, master violinist, and the Elshuco string trio. Definite dates for the appearances of these artists will be announced at another time. As was planned, special concerts for school children will be given.

Cyrena Van Gordon, American dramatic mezzo contralto, with the Chicago Civic Opera Company, is everywhere recognized as one of the notable artists who have achieved outstanding success in grand opera and in the concert field. She is also one of the great American singers who have received their entire musical training in this country.

Miss Van Gordon's debut with the Chicago Opera was made in 1913 in Chicago, when she sang the role of Amneris in "Aida". At this time she was also understudying Mme. Schumann-Heink in German opera roles.

The possessor of a mezzo contralto voice of beautiful quality, Miss Van Gordon's concerts are eagerly awaited by enthusiastic audiences. Throughout the United States she is recognized as an American singer who stands today in the front ranks, both of the opera and the concert.

Jose Echaniz, pianist, is everywhere acclaimed the master of technique and dexterity. Reviews of his recitals in New York and Boston papers proclaim him a genius of the first water. A young man of technical brilliance, he has the temperament to make the same technique interesting.

His manner of conveying his work betokens an ability to twirl interlocking passages with the rapidity of a boy spinning a top. He proves to be an excellent example of the school of piano which is marked by brilliance.

Paul Kochanski is a younger artist on the violin who has blazed his way into prominence during the last few years. Music critics have repeatedly declared him to be one of the few interpretative artists who approach a composition from the standpoint of sincerity and truth. His technique is not exploited and he does not seek to dazzle when it will interfere with the spirit of the music.

A native of Poland, M. Kochanski made his debut at the age of 19, and perhaps there is no other artist who has made more recital appearances. He has been heard many times in the capitals of Europe, as well as making annual visits to the United States, Canada and South America.

The Elshuco trio of New York is now in its 11th season of engagements. It is composed of William Kroll, violin; William Willeke, violincello, and Aurelio Giorni, piano.

For the past several seasons the trio has given concerts in several eastern colleges, and has to its credit the presentation of a complete cycle of the finest Schubert chamber music.

Hon. Walker Chosen To Make Big Speech Of Demo Convention

By MARSHAL OTEY WALKER
Special Central Press Correspondent for New Castle News and Delegate to the Democratic Convention

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—When I get back to the Old Home Town I guess I'll have lost my job as marshal. You see, I may have a new one—that of Democratic spokesman.

Before coming to this beautiful city I didn't realize just how good a Democrat I really was. But now I'm a Jeffersonian dry southern free silver Bryan anti-tariff Smith Democrat with an Alabama accent and a Broadway corkscrew.

I had no idea this morning that the boys were grooming me for first fiddle in the Houston political orchestra. I saw Governor Dan Moody and Frank Roosevelt and some of the other boys in Main street, but they acted as though they didn't know me. Maybe it was to be a surprise.

The first thing I knew of it was when I picked up an newspaper in Herman Park and saw a headline: "Walker to Make Important Speech". I didn't stop to read the article: I let out a whoop and turned a couple of handsprings.

I sat right down and figured out my speech. It will go something like this:

"Friends, fellow citizens, Democrats, gentlemen of the press, people of Houston and everybody else. (Applause). Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking, I shall make my talk as briefly as possible. (Tremendous applause).

"This reminds me of a little story. It seems there were two Irishmen, Otto and Agnes by name. (Applause). etc., etc."

It will all be along that line, but I can't reveal any more right now.

I then went to the Rice hotel, which is one of the biggest snore factories I have ever seen. I hung around the lobby in hopes Jim Reed or Tom Heflin might drop around to see me as to how I stand regarding their candidacy.

Well, I was leaning against a lobby pillar letting people look at me when a reporter came up and asked if I were Mr. Walker, and what would I do if I became president.

I told him. Four hours later, after he had run out of copy paper and cuffs making notes, he closed with a silly question:

"Mr. Walker, what are your future plans," he asked, "will you run for re-election as mayor of New York?"

I was about to tell him I had never seen New York, much less run for mayor there, when someone beckoned to me. It was a friend of mine, an importer of Canadian goods. He wanted to tell me that the tonsil polish I had ordered had arrived, so I left.

Now I wonder what that reporter meant about that crack about thinking me being the mayor of New York?

Four Counties In K. Of P. Outing At Park Wednesday

Knights Of Pythias To Gather In Force At Cascade Tomorrow

Knights of Pythias from Lawrence, Mercer, Beaver and Butler counties will hold their annual outing at Cascade park Wednesday, June 27. All of the members will be accompanied by their families. There will be free coffee and tables with cooking accommodations in the grove and during the afternoon there will be free dancing.

Although the picnic is under the auspices of the K. of P., everybody is welcome, according to park officials.

Citizen Will Aid In Purchase Of Public Playground

Council To Arrange For South Side Playground Area As Result

Councilman D. O. Davies today introduced an ordinance providing for the appropriation, condemnation and purchase of about three acres of land across the Big Run at the Intersection of Lyndal street and Pennsylvania avenue.

The purchase price has not been made known here but it is understood that a public spirited citizen has informed the council that he will contribute toward the purchase.

The ground, if acquired, will be made into a playground which is needed in that section.

The property is owned by A. M. Hanna et. al.

Donates $500,000 For Heart Clinic

PHILADELPHIA, June 26. — To finance research in treatment and prevention of heart disease the University of Pennsylvania has been given $250,000 and promised another $250,000 as needed in the establishment of a clinic.

Announcement of the gift of Edward B. Robinette, Philadelphia banker and graduate of the university in 1909 was made after the commencement week meeting of the executive board of the trustees.

It was the donor's desire that the clinic become operative at once and the clinic staff immediately direct its efforts toward the ultimate prevention of the disease.

Utopia is a place where the statutes in the book are as faithfully observed as unwritten laws.

Talks Farm Relief

Production at a lower cost is the key to the farm relief situation, according to Dan H. Otis, above, of Madison, Wis., agricultural expert for the American Bankers' Association. He points out that through use of improved live stock the U. S. could get along with millions fewer animals, releasing millions of acres for ther purposes.

Conservation Of Timber Urged

R. D. Tonkin Makes Address At Noon Hour Session Of Lion's Club

"Reforesting Pennsylvania" was the subject of the address made by Robert D. Tonkin of Masontown, of the timber department of the H. C. Frick Coke company at the regular meeting of the New Castle Lions club, which took place at noon today in the dining room of the Elks home.

Only the last few years have the people of the state taken any interest in conservation of timber lands, Mr. Tonkin pointed out. He also stated that denuded lands were in a large measure the cause of flooded conditions in spring.

Of the 24,000,000 acres of timber land in the state 6,000,000 are barren. This has been caused by a rapid cut over, the leaving of refuse on the ground and then a spreading fire. Modern forestry and lumbering practice does away in a large measure with this. Now the forests are being cut with regard to the future and only trees adapted to a particular purpose are taken at one time leaving the forest much as it was found he declares.

Mr Tonkin then explained the many ways in which timber can be grown from seedings concluding with the statement that after all the "back to nature" method was the best.

Benjamin Thomas of Masteg, Wales is the guest of his niece, Mrs. Glyn Morgan of Huron avenue. Mr. Thomas expects to visit for about two weeks in this city. Before returning to Wales he will make a tour of the United States.

FEELING BETTER AND STRONGER IN EVERY WAY

Millworker Tells How Ten Herbs Ended Stomach, Liver And Bowel Trouble.

"Ten Herbs has restored my health, making me feel better and stronger in every way," was the statement of Mr. Edward P. Gabler, 65 South Main St., Pittsburgh, Pa., according to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington

MR. EDWARD P. GABLER

St., New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating this great natural medicine to crowds of men and women. "I do not hesitate to tell my friends and fellow-workers what Ten Herbs has done for me," continued Mr. Gabler, who is a millworker.

"My stomach troubled me for a long time. Gas would form and cause rifting. Many times I had to arise from bed because my stomach caused such intense suffering; and there was a constant craving for food. I was always constipated, although I tried all kinds of medicines to regulate my bowels. My liver was sluggish, and my tongue was coated nearly all the time. I became very nervous, and could not sleep at night.

"I read in the newspaper how persons had been benefited by Ten Herbs, and I started using your medicine. My stomach is now in good condition. I am no longer troubled with gas and do not rift any more. My bowels have been regulated. My liver is in good working order, and the coating has left my tongue. Although I have a good appetite, that constant craving for food has left me. I sleep soundly at night, as I am no longer nervous, and my rest is not broken by having to arise. I gladly recommend Ten Herbs to the public."

Profit by the experience of others. Let Ten Herbs benefit and invigorate stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and give your whole system a thorough cleansing.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Police Force At Funeral Service

County Detective And Constables Do Police Duty In City At Funeral Hour

Every member of the police force this afternoon turned out for the funeral of Sergeant Frank M. Jones.

With the exception of the chief, lieutenant and plain clothes officers, they turned out in full uniform, marching to and from the home in a body.

While the entire police force was engaged in this duty, the county detective and constables with the assistance of the city firemen assumed the duties of police officers and had charge of the policing of the entire city.

Court Is Place To Try Liquor Cases

BEAVER, June 26.—Borough police and officials were rapped yesterday in a statement from the bench by Judge W. A. McConnell, who declared that "officials who attempt to regulate the illegal liquor traffic by fining violators of the law under borough ordinances are as much violators of the state and federal laws as bootleggers themselves."

"All liquor cases should be brought into the county courts for disposition and should not be disposed of by borough officials," continued the court.

Texans Plan To Support Jones

Jesse H. Jones, Texas' Most Popular Citizen, Will Get First Ballot Vote

"BROWN DERBY" IS MOST CONSPICUOUS

(International News Service)

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—Jesse H. Jones, Texas' most popular citizen, who single handed brought the Democratic convention to his home city, will receive the solid support of his state for nomination for president. At the Texas caucus the delegation voted to cast the entire 40 votes for him.

HOUSTON—"The Democratic party can elect the next president of the United States and a Democratic congress this year if it makes the good fight against Republican corruption," Alva Adams, former senator from Colorado and noted Western progressive, said in an exclusive statement to I. N. S. Honesty in government and long needed and "Republican denied" farm relief also should be Democratic issues, he said.

HOUSTON—The Al Smith "Brown Derby" splashed into the convention maelstrom today, creating excitement among everybody but the New York delegation.

Young Texans grabbed for the derbies when the venders brought them out in the wake of the arrival of Smith's own cohorts.

Other delegates started or cheered, but still the New Yorkers didn't.

Indeed, the entire Tammany delegation seemed to step out of the character asisgned to it by long tradition.

A Texas band played "Sidewalks of New York" with vim, but the Gothamites didn't even enthuse over it.

In all the eddies of the convention with emblematic donkies, "official" ones, all kinds of souvenirs and all kinds of songs being sold and sung, the New Yorkers displayed little interest.

The delegates coming for excitement were disappointed and the Texans were amazed.

But the Manhattan cohorts were living up to their promise to bring the most somber delegation of all to Houston and keep it that way—until after "Al" Smith is nominated.

Escapes Prison By Jury Laxity

CHICAGO, June 26. — Outsiders who wonder at the complacency with which Chicago tolerates crime and criminals may find an answer in the verdict returned by a jury in the case of Owen Dougherty, paroled eight months ago from the penitentiary for robbery with a gun. On a similar charge he was sentenced to the Pontiac reformatory in 1916, but speedily escaped via the popular "parole" loophole.

A watchman arrested Dougherty as he was tossing choice cuts of meat out the window of a butcher shop. He had piled up almost enough to fill a small truck.

Dougherty said he happened to be strolling past the butcher shop when the watchman stopped him. Regardless of his unsavory record and the direct testimony, a jury returned a verdict of not guilty and set him free.

SANDINO'S BROTHER ARRIVES IN HAVANA

(International News Service)

HAVANA, June 26.—A man claiming to be Socrates Sandino, brother of the Nicaraguan rebel chief arrived from New York today enroute for Mexico. He said he believed he was being trailed by American government detectives.

DOG TEARS SHIRT FROM BOYS BACK

Detective C. G. Logan and Officer Thompson were last night called to 602 East Long avenue, to investigate the report that a dog of D. J. Reese had torn the shirt from the back of a boy named Joe Phipps, 1024 DuShane street. As the boy wanted pay for his shirt, he was referred to an alderman. He was not injured.

Intuition is what makes a woman know she is right in spite of foolish logic.

Democratic Party Is Without Great Leader Says Slemp

All Of Great Democratic Leaders Have Passed To Beyond, Is Belief

Smith And Hoover Are Outstanding Figures And Capable Of Nomination

By C. BASCOM SLEMP
Former Secretary to President Coolidge.
(Written Exclusively for the International News Service.)

NEW YORK, June 26.—President Roosevelt once told me that it takes four years of consideration by the American people to make a nominee for the presidency. This rule or law has been demonstrated this year at both Kansas City and Houston. Hoover has been before the public as a presidential possibility for eight years and likewise Governor Smith.

The mistake the allies made in Kansas City and the mistake the allies are making in Houston is that they think they can undo the settling of the public mind which has been operating for all these years, in a few short hours at convention time. Hysterical meetings at midnight, ominous warnings given to the press never suffice to stop the current when it is backed up by public sentiment accumulating for years. So it looks like Smith.

Practically all the candidates have withdrawn except the old warrior, Senator Reed, who is staking his all on this last turn of the wheel, and he indeed is a pathetic figure. The remarkable success attending him on his last election to the senate seemed to have completely turned his head. He thought that he could go on the stump and stampede the American people into turning to him as a righteous saint—to purify the political world.

Campaign Fails.

It was of no avail that he lost every state he entered except his own and how he is desperately appealing to the drys—whom he has been flaunting all his life, but they do not know their voice.

This is the end of Senator Jim. The Democrats have made up their minds to nominate Smith and take all chances. They are doing this for one reason and for one reason only, and that is why they think he may carry New York.

All the great leaders of democracy apparently passed into the great beyond and there is not one to stand for any policy other than the principle of pure, unalloyed, unadulterated expediency.

Smith may carry New York. Having made up their minds to sacrifice all for Smith, they are trying to make a set-up that will not be too inconsistent with his picture. This makes for the most meaningless declarations and the most hypocritical by-plays ever presented to the American public.

The press carries the statement that Mrs. Woodrow Wilson is a tower of strength to Smith. This, if true, is almost a perversion of the sainted dead. Tammany fought Woodrow Wilson all his life and that political expediency would bring his hallowed memory to the support of this discredited organization is almost unbelievable.

Woodrow Wilson, if living, would have been found on the side of those who are fighting for principle and not for expediency. He was always elected without New York.

Legal Battle Looms For Cult Control

House Of David Affairs To End Up In Court Cattle Is Indication

(International News Service)

BENTON, HARBOR, Mich., June 26.—A legal battle for control of the House of David was presaged today between "Queen" Mary Purnell, wife of the deceased "seventh messenger", and H. T. Dewhirst, who has been head of the colony's advisory board since "King" Ben Purnell died.

While Dewhirst is virtually the colony leader, Mary retains her palatial quarters and W. J. Barnard, attorney for the cult, and her friend, declares a majority of the members are loyal to her. Barnard, in a long statement, calls DeWhirst a "trouble maker", and asserts that if Dewhirst were eliminated from the situation the colony would have peace and happiness.

Barnard's statement also says the advisory board is functioning contrary to law and indicates a legal battle will be started to give colony members an opportunity to hold a general assembly and express their wishes.

Produce Train Badly Wrecked

Accident Occurs On Buffalo Division Of Pennsylvania Railroad This Morning

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., June 26.—Thirty-four freight cars were demolished and traffic on the Buffalo division of the Pennsylvania railroad was tied up when a truck of the speeding produce train left the rails at Port Allegany, near here early today. No one was injured.

The cars were piled into a mass of wreckage nearly 75 feet high, and potatoes and cucumbers, with which the train was loaded, were strewn along the right of way.

Wrecking crews from Renovo and Emporium, Pa., and Olean, N. Y., were dispatched to the scene of the wreck, but it was indicated it will be late tonight before the tracks can be cleared.

Make Reports Of Auto Accidents

One Person Is Taken To Hospital As Result Of Crash

Several automobile accidents were reported to the police in the past 24 hours. One person was injured and was taken to the New Castle hospital.

Joe Huston, 1036 Adams street, reported Monday that he was driving south on Mill street at Reynolds street when Jacob Rogovin, driving a horse and wagon west on Reynolds street, was thrown from the wagon, which was struck by the Huston car. Rogovin was hurt about the hips and was taken to the New Castle hospital by Mr. Huston, where it was found that he had not been seriously injured.

John B. Maturo, 646 East Washington street, had his machine parked in front of 826 South Mill street when a car bearing Ohio license 889-104, going south on South Mill street, hit and damaged his machine.

E. G. Brown of 413 Highland avenue reported that he was en route north on Jefferson street at Grant street when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 498-320, going north on Jefferson street, hit and damaged his car.

Stephen Skuba of 220 Hillcrest avenue was driving south on South Mill street and making a left-hand turn onto Grove street, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 479,372, going west on Grove street and making a left turn onto South Mill street, collided with his machine, doing considerable damage.

E. E. Blaine of 222 North Walnut street, reported that he was driving a Ramsey & Sons truck east on East Washington street at Britton Stop and a street car was going in the same direction. The street car stopped suddenly and in trying to stop the truck it skidded into the street car. The truck was somewhat damaged.

Child Succumbs To Scalds Received In Overturn Of Kettle

BUTLER, Pa., June 26.—Tipping a teakettle of hot water over his head, Chest and back, while his mother was absent from the kitchen, Karl Oesterling Keck, the year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keck of 608 Center avenue, was so badly scalded that he died.

Karl was playing in the kitchen. His mother left the room and while she was away the child opened the oven door, climbed up on the step of the oven and, grabbing the teakettle, spilled the scalding water over his head, face, chest and back.

Surviving are his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Sarah, Florence, Alberta, Kenneth and David all at home.

Milk Control Board For Beaver County

ROCHESTER, Pa., June 26.—The Beaver county board of commissioners meeting with the executive board of the Beaver County Public Health association last night, agreed to appropriate a sum of money for the financing of a Beaver county board of milk control for a period of two years. With this action, Beaver county becomes the first county in the state to have a county-wide milk control board. The state department has also agreed to appropriate a sum of money to take care of rural dairies, this being the first time the state has assisted in a county-wide movement.

The Beaver county milk control board, working through the public health association, will be composed of the members of the executive board of the association.

At the meeting, held in the Penn-Beaver hotel, Rochester, H. E. Shroat of the state department of health, milk control division, gave additional figures on three dairies which he had but recently investigated. He stated that 16 drops of milk from these dairies disclosed 30 to 40 million bacteria whereas the average should be but 300 to 400 thousand bacteria to 16 drops.

Auto, Running Wild, Crushes Two Girls

CINCINNATI, June 26.—Automobile accidents caused the death here last night of two girls, 5 and 10 years old, respectively, and another 10-year old girl was not expected to recover from injuries suffered in one of the mishaps.

Helen Conklin, 5, died shortly after she was struck by an automobile in front of her home at Mount Washington, a suburb.

Anna May Stevens, 10, was crushed to death and Agnes Kimball, 10, was injured probably fatally when a collision of two automobiles caused one of the machines to run onto the sidewalk, crushing the girls against a building.

The two deaths bring Hamilton County's automobile fatalities since the first of the year to 57.

Mrs. H. H. Rosenthal of the Hileman Apartments, and Miss Emlie Salomon have left for Davenport, Iowa, where they will attend the convention of the Quota International. From there Mrs. Rosenthal will go to Ada and Chichasha, Oklahoma, where she will spend two months with her sisters.

ARRESTED AS HOUSTON ACTS IN LYNCHING CASE

Four of the six men arrested at Houston, Tex., in connection with the lynching of Robert Powell, 24, negro, at Houston. Powell, suffering from gunshot wounds from a battle with a policeman, in which the officer was slain, was dragged from his bed at Jefferson Davis hospital by a band of seven men. Shown in the photo, left to right, are, F. T. Shuck, John Kent, Charlie Oldham and A. B. Wheeler.

Short And Snappy Convention, Is Cry

Democrats Hope To Have Harmony As Sessions Are Started

IMMENSE CROWD GATHERS AT HOUSTON

Amplifiers Carry Reports Of Convention Proceedings To Crowd Outside

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SAM HOUSTON Hall, Houston, Tex. June 26—The rumble of a Smith band wagon bearing the legend "Smith-and-Robinson" was heard in the offing today as the thousand-odd delegates to the Democratic National convention sweltered their way into this huge mountain of pine and bunting at Houston erected for them almost overnight.

Of the Smith part of the ticket, no one had any doubt whatsoever—not even the bitterest last-ditcher from forks of some southern creek.

The movement to nominate the New York governor on the first ballot was growing as the delegates assembled for the first session. A careful figure analysis showed that barring last-minute upsets he will have more than 700 votes on the initial ballot, with several of the favorite sons teetering on the fence over the question of withdrawing early and letting it go with a whoop on the first roll call.

As for the Robinson part of the ticket, the movement undeniably was growing by leaps and bounds this morning to name the Arkansas senator early in the proceedings.

The Tammany people were for him, his senatorial colleagues scattered through a dozen delegations were boosting him, and within the next three days there probably will be enough votes lined up to insure his nomination.

The cry was everywhere to make this convention "short and snappy"—no Madison Square Garden. The heat, of which Houston has plenty, contributed to the desire to wind things up as quickly as possible. The principle barrier seemed to be the prohibition plank in the platform but here again was the impatient desire on the part of leaders to avoid any lengthy argument. A short and snappy fight and a strong law enforcement plank that will be acceptable to the wets and still will mollify the drys was the goal.

All Houston was enfete and on tiptoe for this show.

Downtown streets resounded to the music of marching bands beginning as early as 9 o'clock. Most of Texas came to Houston to sit in on the first national convention that this section of the country ever saw. Cowboys, oil men, ranchers, cotton men, fruit growers—everybody was her for what the Texans call "some whoopee."

Sam Houston's hall holds 16,000 and covers seemingly a mile of space. Across the street was what Houston calls its "hospitality house," a covered city block of benches, Ice water and electric fans.

This was for the thousands who were unable to buy, beg or steal a ticket into the main tent.

Amplifiers carried the burning words from the platform to those outside. Not even the drab character of the opening session could keep 'em from blocking out to see the show.

There wasn't much planned for the initial session—not even the usual keynote. With a keen eye to the millions who might listen to this tonight over the radio, the convention planners decided to postpone that until 7 p. m.

The first session concerned itself only with perfecting the temporary organization and the usual routine duties of appointing committees, etc.

Supposed Murdered Woman Is Alive

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 26.—Mary Warren, negress, supposedly murdered some months ago in Lowndes county and her body chopped to pieces and thrown into the Alabama river, has returned to her home alive and well. "I had just been off on a visit to kinfolks," she told the officers.

During her absence Louise Butler and George Elder, negroes, were convicted of murdering her and sentenced for life in the state penitentiary.

Two witnesses testified they saw Butler and Elder kill the woman with an ax; that one held a lantern while the other cut off the woman's arms and legs. The body was thrown into the Alabama river, according to the witnesses.

Gov. Bibb Graves has granted a temporary parole of 60 days to the two convicted negroes while the matter is being investigated.

Attend Funeral Of Father, Killed At North Girard

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Lynn Johnson and Virgin Saxton of Lutton street have returned from attending the funeral services of Mr. Johnson's father who was killed by a New York Central train at 3:40 p. m. Friday, June 22 near North Girard, Pa.

The deceased was 80 years of age and had been a resident of North Girard for many years.

Wife Blacks Eye Of Rival; Fined Cent

PORTLAND, Me., June 26.—When Bessie W. Odlin, mother of two children, spied her husband, Charles W. Odlin, saxophonist, in company with Miss Ida E. Hamilton, twenty-four-year-old manicurist, after repeated court warnings against intimacy, she took the law into her own hands, blacked Miss Hamilton's eyes and danced on her body. Mrs. Odlin appeared in Municipal court today on a charge of assault. Judge Pinansky gave Mrs. Odlin a fine of 1 cent and said: "Let this case be a warning to all flappers who attempt to come between married people."

The court advised Miss Hamilton to leave town if she did not wish to land in custody.

Two-Thirds Of Married Men Said To Be Dissatisfied

NEW YORK, June 26—One hundred marriages, placed under the microscope of 400 questions, have shown that 61 out of a total of 100 men in New York City can think of 233 causes of dissatisfaction.

That, in brief, is the result of a survey published in the Woman's Home Companion which is on the news stands today. Among the startling admissions gained from these men, among them business and propoet, an actor, a composer, editors and playwrights, were the following:

"Seven began to be seriously dissatisfied while they were still engaged to their prospective wives.

"Eight said that they had been dissatisfied from the beginning.

"One man was troubled by 12 causes of dissatisfaction.

Here the statistics on the kinds of things these men found wrong with their married lives:

Temperamental dissatisfaction, 49; physical dissatisfaction, 39; lack of personal freedom, 10; ill health, 10; jealousy, 8; troubles over children, 8; economic troubles, 3; friction over relatives, 7; social life spoiled by wife, 5; vocation interfered with marriage, 2; religious conflicts, 1; "everything wrong," 2.

Further Probe Of Prehistoric Ruins

FRANKLIN, Pa., June 26.—An expedition in charge of Commander Eugene F. MacDonald, Jr., of Chicago, will head for Isle Royale, Lake Superior early in July it is announced. Commander MacDonald making the trip in his private yacht will visit the island which William P. F. Ferguson, editor of this city, has explored for several seasons.

Important discoveries and uncovering of old copper mines were made by Mr. Ferguson whose health now is such that he must forego further explorations. His findings however are expected to prove of great help to the MacDonald party. Some believe the ruins there are of Norse origin while Mr. Ferguson was of the belief they were those of Indians closely allied to the Aztecs.

Girls Pile Up Cash On Tobacco Farm

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., June 26.—Farm relief is no problem in so far as Della and Etta Bradley sisters are concerned. They have just deposited $2,400 in a bank as proceeds from the sale of a tobacco crop harvested on three and a half acres of land. They planted, worked, gathered, cured and sold the crop without aid or advice from anybody

When they are not farming the sisters are occupied in the city where Etta is a teacher in the high school and Della a student in a business college. From April to September they grow enough tobacco on their small farm to send the younger girl to school in the winter and to board and clothe both of them. Etta's pay as a school teacher represents their nest egg.

A vest used to be called a waist coat. You see, men in those days had a waist.

Weekday Religion School Successful

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—Much enthusiasm was evident at the meeting of the Weekday Religious Association meeting last evening in the Presbyterian church when the financial business was concluded for the season.

The two teachers of religious education in the schools were re-elected, Mrs. Edith Barnhart and Mrs. Dwight Conner.

The report of the season's work shows that it is progressing rapidly. The total enrollment of pupils for last year was 1100 with an average attendance of 1000, who show pleasing advancement. The directors feel very well satisfied over this report.

Officers of the Association are Rev. A. M. Stevenson, president; Rev. W. E. Minteer, vice president; J. W. Martin, secretary; C. A. Martin, treasurer.

The next meeting will be in September and will be the annual dinner meeting and the election of officers of the association.

Formal Opening Of Library Tomorrow

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—The formal opening of the new library will be held tomorrow from three p. m. to 9 p. m. and all adults are cordially invited to attend.

There will be no books given out until Thursday, but patrons are asked to come out and view the new building with the much-heeded conveniences the city library has long been in need of.

The public is requested to bear in mind that the formal opening is for adults only.

Rahiser Waives Hearing Monday

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—Ex-police officer, W. F. Rahiser, charged with receiving stolen goods, waived a hearing before Justice of the Peace Douds yesterday, and was held over for the September term of court.

His bail was set at $500. Constable C. J. Clark is his bodnsman.

Committee Plans For Celebration

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—A meeting of the committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to have charge of a Fourth of July celebration for Ellwood City will meet today to make definite plans for the arrangements.

The celebration will be held in Ewing Park and will consist of two ball games, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, two band concerts, by the Shelby band, and fireworks in the evening.

Representatives from various parts of town were placed on the committee which is as follows: M. Edelman, Howard Jones, Chamber of Commerce; John Ruscovitch, National Tube Company; George W. Wilson, Ewing Park; and Joe Zona.

Past Chiefs Club Surprises Members

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—Mrs. W. C. McKim of Fountain avenue, was pleasantly surprised by the Past Chiefs club of which she is a member, last evening at her home.

Mrs. McKim has made the remark to her associates in the club, that she could not be surprised, and they decided to fool her, so they came laden with good things to eat. A jolly evening of cards and social conversation ensued and was followed by the lunch prepared by the women. A special guest was Mrs. Clare Wayne of New Brighton.

Octette Bridge Club With Mrs. Sekulski

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—The Octette Bridge club was entertained by Mrs. Lee Sekulski at her home in Line avenue, last evening.

Bridge was played at two tables, high score favor being awarded to Mrs. Jay Buquo.

Luncheon was served at the conclusion of the playing. Mrs. Sekulski was assisted in serving by Mrs. Buquo.

The next meeting will be in two weeks at a place to be announced later.

Leave For Sunday School Camp Today

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—Another detachment of girls from the various Sunday schools left this morning for Caledon camp where they will spend a week.

Those leaving today are Oleda Millson, Marjorie Liebendorfer, Jean Helling, Marie McDevitt, Isabelle Mortenson, Emma Do, Mortha Mayne, Evelyn Miles, Margaret Battersby, Jean Cunningham and Ruth Haines.

Nobile's Rescuer

Commander Tornberg, above, of Sweden, is the leader of the seaplane, Upland, which rescued General Umberto Nobile, commander of the ill-fated dirigible, Italia, from the ice floes of North Spitsbergen.

Many Planes To Be Seen In Air Circus

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—Thirteen planes are expected to be here next Friday to take part in the air circus at the airport. The members of the committee are busy with plans to make the circus, a remarkable innovation for Ellwood, a success.

ELLWOOD CITY HOSPITAL

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—The Ellwood City hospital discharged two patients yesterday, Mrs. William E. Swope and Miss Betty Swope, R. D. 1.

Fortnight Club At Cascade Park

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—Five members of the Fortnight Club with their husbands motored to Cascade Park last evening where they enjoyed the dance.

Afterwards they returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. French where a delicious lunch was served, the feature of which was a large birthday cake, the gift of the club to E. S. French to honor his birthday. Besides the cake, the club presented Mr. French with another gift.

Those enjoying the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowater, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. French.

Mrs. Boggs Is Hostess To Monday Night Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 26.—Mrs. J. W. Boggs entertained the members of the Monday Night club at her home last evening with two tables of bridge in play.

Score favors were awarded to Mrs. Ferd Zeigler and Mrs. H. A. Aiken. Guest favors were won by Mrs. Don Northrup and Mrs. D. W. Baker, of Akron, special guests.

ELLWOOD CITY PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. Mayne of Northside, spent Sunday in Bessemer.

Harry Miller, who has been a student in the University of Indiana, is spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. John Young.

Mrs. H. W. Christie and Miss Mary Ann French were New Castle visitors today.

Strikes And Riots—1886

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S FIRST TERM SAW A BITTER FIGHT BETWEEN THE FORCES OF CAPITAL AND LABOR. IN 1886 THERE WERE MORE THAN 500 LABOR DISPUTES, MOST OF THEM THE RESULT OF THE GROWING DEMAND OF WORKERS FOR AN 8-HOUR DAY, AND VIOLENCE WAS WIDESPREAD. THE MOST SERIOUS OF THE STRIKES TOOK PLACE IN CHICAGO, WHERE FOREIGN ANARCHISTS INCITED SOME OF THE STRIKERS TO USE VIOLENCE.

MAY 3, A CROWD OF STRIKERS CLASHED WITH THE GUARDS DEFENDING THE McCORMICK HARVESTER PLANT, THE STRIKERS ATTACKING THE WORKS. POLICE RESERVES HURRIED TO THE SCENE AND DISPERSED THE MOB WITH DIFFICULTY.

THE NEXT DAY, WHEN THE POLICE ATTEMPTED TO BREAK UP A MEETING OF THE STRIKERS IN HAYMARKET SQUARE, AN ANARCHIST HURLED A BOMB WHICH KILLED SEVEN AND WOUNDED SIXTY OFFICERS. THE TROUBLE WAS FINALLY QUELLED AND FOUR ANARCHISTS CONVICTED OF THE BOMBING WERE EXECUTED.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND HAD BEEN DEEPLY CONCERNED OVER THE LABOR DISPUTE, AND SENT A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO CONGRESS—THE FIRST PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE ON LABOR IN OUR HISTORY—RECOMMENDING THE CREATION OF A NATIONAL COMMISSION TO SETTLE DISPUTES BETWEEN CAPITAL AND LABOR.

TOMORROW—EVENTS OF HARRISON'S ADMINISTRATION.

Emmett Rocco Defeats Battling Levinsky

Wins Award In Ten Fast Rounds

Rocco Too Young For Ex-Champion; Levinsky Takes Only One Round

PACELLI, McMANUS AND FIRPO VICTORS

By ED. FRITZ

Emmett Rocco, youthful heavyweight of Ellwood City today holds a 10-round decision over Battling Levinsky, having won from the former light-heavyweight champion of the world in a 10 round bout at Jolly bowl, dedicated to boxing last night. Several thousand fans witnessed the fistic entertainment which was featured by the attendance of several hundred women.

The battle was a repetition of the old story of youth vs. age and youth won again, and to be exact the writer awarded only one round, the fourth to Levinsky who sustained his first defeat at the bowl during the past 44 weeks of a campaign which he hoped would lead him to a fight with Tommy Loughran.

During the forepart of the battle the Philadelphian coaxed Rocco into leads and beat him to the punch but as the fight progressed Rocco became more aggressive, carried the battle into the camp of the ex-champion and kept Levinsky mostly on the defensive. His experience and generalship stood Levinsky in good stead.

Rocco forced the fighting in the first and continued his style in the second, taking the rounds and in the third Levinsky made Rocco miss considerably at the start of the round but Rocco clipped him on the jaw with a right and followed it up with jolts to the jaw. Just before the round ended Emmett nailed the battler on the jaw with another right which hurt Levinsky.

The Battler came out fast in the fourth and outfought Rocco at close quarters. They slugged on the ropes and Levinsky popped a left to the face and a right to the jaw. Levinsky sent two more lefts to the face and pounded the kidneys. He had far the best of the fourth session and seemed to be able to hold his own.

Rocco Carries Steam

Referee Grayber warned Rocco about using the kidney punch when the fifth started and Levinsky started jabbing to the face. They exchanged left and rights and Rocco shook Levinsky up with a right to the jaw. His punch carried steam and he was forcing the battler around the ring when his glove burst with five seconds to go.

Rocco walked straight into Levinsky and shot a right to the stomach and a left to the jaw in the sixth. As Rocco continued his assault Levinsky stepped in with a deadly right uppercut to the stomach that stopped Rocco's aggressiveness then popped him with a left. As Rocco hit him on the neck while bended over the ropes Levinsky smiled. The round was even.

Emmett outfought Levinsky on the ropes in the seventh and after they broke Levinsky sent a left to the face and a right to the stomach. They went to close quarters and Rocco shifted and sent a left to the head. It was an old trick the battler fell for. Levinsky sent three light lefts to the head and Rocco put a hard left to the face.

The battler was shaken up good in the eighth when Rocco sent a terrific right to the jaw which was the best punch of the fight. Levinsky clinched and held on and after the break sent a left to the head and then commenced falling short with his left. Rocco sent a left to the heart and Levinsky put a right to the jaw. Rocco rushed Levinsky with right and left to body at the bell.

Levinsky Backs Away

Rocco walked after Levinsky in the ninth and Levinsky continued to retreat, firing lefts which landed sometimes and sometimes they didn't There was no power in the punches and Rocco tried to get close enough to wale to the stomach. He landed a right then Rocco outjabbed Levinsky which furnishes an idea as to how fast the former light-heavyweight's strength was departing.

They shook hands in the tenth and Levinsky tried for a garrison finish. He sent a right to the jaw and Rocco put right and left to the head. Levinsky's leads fell short but he landed one left to the stomach and Emmett outjabbed Levinsky then nailed him with a left and right to the jaw at the bell.

The judges awarded the decision to Rocco. Levinsky weighed 183½ and Rocco 181¾.

The fight was featured by two episodes which seldom happen in ringdom. In the first round one of the gloves on Rocco's hands burst and the bout was stopped one minute to replace it. The boxers started again and finished the round. In the fifth round one of Levinsky's gloves burst with five seconds to go and the round was called even by the referee.

The semi-final and one perliminary was held after the main bout as it was thought rain would fall to mar the main bout but J. Pluv held off and the thousands of fans sat throughout the performance under threatening clouds. And right here it might be said that the show was conducted in such a way that not one hitch went wrong and the big crowd was handled efficiently.

Young Firpo, Louisville, stopped Joe Midway, New Castle in the fifth round. Midway was knocked and wrestled to the floor seven times and a second threw in a towel. They are middleweights.

Romeo Stops Johnny

Romeo Pacelli, flashy south side junior lightweight lived up to his record by stopping Johnny Slate, 134, in the fourth round when seconds threw in a towel.

Young Harris, Pittsburgh, 146, won the decision in four rounds over Henry Slate, 142, New Castle, brother to Johnny in a bout which was keen for action.

Terry McManus, Pittsburgh, 113, captured the award from Young Pansy, 108, of Midland in a four round battle. It was a fast fight with McManus predominating the 'going.'

The boxing commission assigned Al Grayber as referee and Eddie Kennedy and Jack Simco as judges and their decisions were correct.

It was the most orderly crowd that ever attended a boxing bout here and the bowl was a sea of humanity. Not one word or act by anybody marred the opening and the affair was conducted like clockwork.

AMBRIDGE, June 26.—Miss Mary Guy and Miss Catherine Reed, both of New Brighton, were painfully injured when the automobile in which they were riding with Lewis Nesbit, Zelienople, skidded and crashed into a telephone pole, one mile north of here. They were attended by a local physician and removed to their homes.

Godfrey-Risko To Battle Wednesday

Risko Favored To Defeat Black Threat In Brooklyn Ring Tomorrow Night

RISKO MUST WIN FOR RECOGNITION

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, June 26.—It is to be hoped that nothing further will interfere with the proceedings, scheduled now for tomorrow evening, whereby it is possible we will be well rid of an insufferable bore. Usually, this type is avoided pointedly and with all haste, both socially and professionally, but George Godfrey, the negro heavyweight, enjoys an immunity tht is denied all others of his pestiferous breed. They don't avoid George, they pay to see him.

Therefore, a reasonably generous outpouring of the populace may be looked for at Ebbets Field tomorrow night when Godfrey will be tossed in with Johnny Risko for ten rounds and the writer sees, in the prospect, only good coming from apparent evil. He wants as many as possible to know Godfrey for what he is and he thinks Risko is just the demonstration needed.

Can't Hurt Godfrey

A great towering black, with the torso of a Hindu god, Godfrey has a physical heritage that few man know. Given the fighting instinct, of Dempsey, the body of Godfrey would probably reign supreme through the ages. Instead, he is just a human negative. You don't hurt him much. He hurts you even less.

In spite of his great strength, he hasn't mastered the trick of bashing another on the nostril with dire consequence nor does he seem to have any great stomach for the life he has professed.

I understand they like him in Los Angeles. If that is so, then there is no accounting for taste or Godfrey has been holding out on us here. To the best of my knowledge, he hasn't made a good fight in the East and, in all truth, he has had full many a chance.

They say Godfrey hurt his Los Angeles reputation just a bit in his fight with Paulino. In consequence, there seems to be an excellent chance that he will be discontinued and abated tomorrow night, for Risko has more on the ball than Paulino showed in these parts.

Columbia Crew Is Given Shake-Up

(International News Service)

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 26.—Columbia's varsity crew, favored to hold its own with California and Yale in the Olympic tryout regatta at Philadelphia next week became something of an unknown quantity today as the result of the big shift which Rich Glendon made in the New York eight last night to speed up the stroke in the sprints.

Sammy Walker, bow oar in the New York varsity boat for two years, has been ousted from the shell and only Horace Davenport at No. 7 of the entire starboard crew has been left in his position. Douglas at No. 3 has been shifted to bow while Lightbowne has been moved from No. 5 to No. 3. The hole thus left at No. 5 has been plugged by taking Jim Reynolds from No. 5 in the junior varsity shell. Walker has been assigned for the time being to row at Reynolds' old place.

Bill Dalley is again rowing No. 5 in the California varsity where he rowed in last week's race and Rydlander has been relegated to the four.

Junior League

The C. C. Sluggers took a forfeit game from the North Hill, team in a scheduled Junior Recreation League game, when the latter team failed to appear on the Glasser field. The Sluggers now have six victories to to their credit.

The Mud Divers defeated the Indians 6 to 5 in a game played at the P. & L. E. grounds. The Indians outhit the Mud Divers, but were unable to make their hits count. Five errors by the Indians aided in their defeat. The game went twelve innings. Gilmore hurled a fine game.

The Mud Divers won a forfeit game from the North Hill team recently when the latter team failed to show up for a scheduled league attraction, at the P. & L. E. field.

The Keystones downed the Lawrence Juniors 5 to 4 in a game played at the P. & L. E. field on Monday night. The game was a pitchers battle between Billyk for the Keystones and Neyman and Mazzarri for the Lawrence Juniors. Billyk featured the game with a home run and triple in addition to his fine hurling.

The C. C. Sluggers downed the Vagabonds 25 to 2 in a free-for-all slugging match staged in the Junior League on Monday night. Krupa on the hill for the Sluggers allowed but four hits and fanned eight men. The Sluggers found Brooks, Rogers, Donegan and McLaughlin for twenty-three hits. Ostrosky featured the game with a home run drive.

Unsung Heroes — By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1928, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

There are other players on the Philadelphia Athletics besides Cobb, Collins, Speaker, Simmons and Grove. You bet your life there are! One of them is Samuel Douglas Hale of Texas, who returned to the A's lineup on June 8 after a brief vacation due to a leg injury and immediately socked out a homer with the bases full to help defeat the Browns in St. Louis. At this writing Sammy's batting average is better than his illustrious teammates and he hopes to finish the season with a better percentage than the .313 that he compiled in 1927.

With Hale playing so well, and Hauser, Bishop and Boley all starring with Dykes to fill in, critics are comparing the present-day Athletic infield to the famous old combination of Baker, Barry, Collins and McInnis of 1914 vintage.

Then there is Jimmy Fox 22-year-old catcher, who can also play first base or third if necessary and who is batting better than .400 at this writing. Jimmy is looked upon as one of the most promising catchers in the business.

Howard Ehmke, who is as tall as his name is short, is now in his 12th season in the majors, having had six seasons with Detroit, four with Boston and two with Philadelphia. As a member of the Red Sox on September 7, 1923, he pitched a no-hit, no-run game against the Athletics. Four days later he shut out the Yankees with one hit and that one hit, coming in the first inning, might easily have been scored as an error for Third-baseman Shanks, who bobbled a rather easy bouncing grounder. That was the one "hit" Ehmks allowed in 18 consecutive innings.

First Baptists Trim First M. E.

The First Baptist team of the Church League downed the First M. E. team 3 to 1 in a game played at the Scotland Lane field.

The game was a pitchers' battle between Davies and Hughes, with the former the more effective of the two. The Baptists climbed on Hughes for enough hits to produce three runs in the third inning. The First M. E. team bunched hits to score their lone tally in the first inning.

The hitting stars of the game were Reed, Fox and Johnston for the Baptists and McKnight for the First M. E. team.

Central Christians Take Victory 6-3

The Central Christians, with Wylie Shiek in rare form, defeated the First Christians, 6 to 3, in a well played game at the Lehigh field Monday night in the New Castle Church League.

The game was won by the Centrals with a rally in the fifth inning that gave them three runs. The game was a pitching duel between Shiek and Lacky and Campbell. Lackey was sent to the shower by a barrage of hits in the fifth chapter. Campbell stopped the rally.

The hitting of Cowmeadow and P. Hoskins featured the game. Shiek fanned 10 men and walked seven.

Johnny Risko Is Willing To Meet Dempsey

Cleveland Boy Will Battle Dempsey If He Beats George Godfrey, Is Claim

WALKER-LOMSKI BOUT IN DOUBT

By SID MERCER
International News Service Special Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 26.—Abe Yeager, public relations counsel for Promoter Humbert Fugazy, admitted today that Johnny Risko has broken down and confessed that he will consent to a meeting with Jack Dempsey next fall in the event that he is able to disperse the menacing Black Shadow of George Godfrey tomorrow evening at Ebbets Field.

Only two minor details are unsettled: Risko must first beat Godfrey and Dempsey must come out of retirement. Everything else has been arranged.

Napoleon Jack Dorval and Pierre Charles, two of the younger set who hope to graduate into Commodore Rickard's senior eliminations next fall, meet tonight at the Queensboro stadium where they were scheduled to trade thumps last Tuesday.

Jack Kearns has made it plain that there will be no Mickey Walker-Leo Lomski fight in New York unless both men come in at catchweights. That was his understanding, Kearns says, when he gave Humbert Fugazy permission to go ahead with the match. Fugazy had intedded to promote it early next month at Ebbets Field.

The boxing commission last week ruled that Walker cannot appear here unless he makes the middleweight limit of 160 pounds. And thus another "natural" seems to have been effectively faded.

Wrestling Bout Goes To Londos

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—Jim Londos, Greek champion, today had earned the right to recognition by nine states as the world's wrestling champion by his defeat of Dick Shikat, giant German, before 14,000 fans here last night in one hour and 27 minutes with a Japanese headlock.

The German forced the match from the start appearing far stronger than his opponent. He applied headlock after headlock but in his haste missed one and landed sprawling at his oppenent's feet. In a flash Londos applied a Japanese headlock and one of the best wrestling bouts ever seen here came to an end with the Greek victorious.

One way to make the time seem shorter between pay-days is to have the car installments due on the same days.

Giants-Dodgers Gaining Ground

Giants And Brooklyn Feeding Up On Weak Sisters Of League

BENTON CAPTURES TWELFTH VICTORY

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 26.—Finding soft pickings in Philadelphia and Boston, the weak sisters of the National League, the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers are gaining ground on the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals and the other western contenders.

Larry Benton won his 12th victory and Bill Walker, Denver southpaw, turned in his first win of the season as the Giants swamped the Phils twice, 12 to 4 and 8 to 2. Fred Lindstrom of the Giants swatted nine hits in 11 times at bat, raising his batting average from .316 to .339. Del Bissonette hit his 15th homer as Brooklyn outslugged Boston, 9 to 3.

The Cards nosed out Cincinnati, 5 to 2, on Pinch Hitter Blade's triple in the 11th with the bases loaded.

Washington jumped to fourth place in the American League when their two southpaws, Braxton and Brown, stopped the Athletics twice, 3 to 2 and 7 to 2. Brown allowed only three hits.

Heinie Manush clouted two homers against Cleveland, but Eddie Morgan's four-bagger in the tenth beat the Browns, 7 to 4.

With Moe Berg driving in four runs, the White Sox beat Detroit, 8 to 6, and pushed the Tigers back into the cellar.

Federal Aid Fund Money Available

Almost $3,000,000 Is Available For New Projects In Pennsylvania

There is a total of $2,813,520 in the Federal-Aid funds available for new projects in Pennsylvania, according to Bernard N. Hanlan, secretary-manager of the New Castle Motor club, based on figures received from the American Automobile Association, with which the club is affiliated.

Mr. Hanlon declared that this fund, together with the money being spent on projects under construction and those approved, assures that this valuable assistance to state highway building will continue on the past scale, having given the nation one of the finest systems of roads in the world.

The officials of the New Castle Motor club have been advised by the American Automobile Association that the balance of the Federal-Aid funds now available for new projects amounts to $84,115,118, while there is more than $125,000,000 represented in projects under construction and more than $28,000,000 in projects already approved.

Fraiser Hurls Two-Hit Game

Arnold "Fiz" Fraiser was master of the Grace and Congregational team, last night at the Mahoningtown field as the Central Presbyterians battled to a 1 to 0 verdict.

Fraiser had the opposing team eating out of his hand, there was only one ball hit out of the infield and he allowed but two hits, and fanned six men. The Presbyterians found Jones for nine hits and he fanned six batters. Patterson with a pair of doubles was the heavy hitter of the game, while Campbell had three safe wallops.

Ask Injunction In Auto Merger

Arguments To Be Heard In Matter Of Chrysler-Dodge Stock Transfer

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 26.—A step permanently to the proposed giant merger of Dodge Brothers, Inc., and the Chrysler Corporation was expected to be taken today when legal representatives of minority rights in the former argue in the supreme court to have the temporary injunction obtained yesterday made permanent. Supreme Court Justice George V. Mullan was to hear the arguments. An early decision is expected. The writ yesterday stopped the merger at the eleventh hour.

Col. Calvin Hooker Goddard, an officer in the United States Reserves, who brought the action, alleges that instead of being an actual merger the proposed transfer of the stock of the Dodge Motor interests to the Chrysler Corporation is actually a dissolution of Dodge Brothers.

Col. Goddard holds that preference stockholders are entitled to $105 a share, for which the initial sale of stock provided. Under the proposed merger, however, they are to receive share for share of Chrysler Corporation for Dodge Brothers preferred stock. Chrysler closed yesterday at 68 1-2.

Robert B. Mantell Seriously Ill, Is Near Death Today

Veteran Actor Well Known To Thousands Of Theatre Goers Has Little Chance

(International News Service)

ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, N. J., June 26.—Robert B. Mantell, veteran Shakesperian actor, was reported in a weaker condition today at his country home "Brucewood" here, where he has been ill.

Last night it was said little hope was held for his recovery. Mantell suffered a general breakdown last month. Since yesterday he has been slowly sinking, it was said.

Father Dies In Hendersonville

John Miller of East Washington street, his brother Charles and two sisters residing in this district, were last night called to Hendersonville, N. C., by the death of their father, W. G. Miller, former resident of this district, who has resided in North Carolina for quite a number of years. It was within the past few months that Mr. Miller and his wife celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with their children from this district present. The children from this district will remain until after the funeral.

Verdicts Of Guilty In Two Court Cases

In the case of the commonwealth against Julia Di Baise for possessing liquor and Julia Di Baise and Frank Divetto for conspiracy to sell liquor, the jury returned a verdict of guilty in both cases. The case was tried before Judge Chambers.

Divetto who runs a small store on South Mill street, denied that he had any liquor in the sttore but admitted that he had some at his garage. Julia Di Baise he claimed was not a partner in the business but a clerk.

This was the last case on the trial list for the present term of court.

It was reported that Miss Earhart and Lady Heath discussed the possibility of attempting a distance flight together at some future date.

Miss Earhart accepted an invitation to be luncheon guest of the American newspaper correspondents at the Savoy hotel this afternoon.

Must Ask For State Aid Funds At Once

School Boards Can Get Half The Cost Of Transporting Pupils To School

County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling is calling the attention of school boards to the fact that their applications for state appropriations for school funds to assist in the transportation of pupils to consolidated schools must be in his hands by next Saturday in order to secure the awards.

The state pays one-half of the amount expended by school boards in the transportation of pupils up to $4,000. North Beaver township's share this year will be around $4,000 being one of the townships with heavy expense in transporting pupils.

M'KECHNIE MAY GET LAST LAUGH

Bill McKechnie, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, may enjoy the last laugh at the expense of his old boss, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, if the Cards win the National league pennant. Bill was let out after winning a flag for the Bucs and now as boss of the Cards he has St. Louis fighting for the pennant while Pittsburgh is down in the second division.

Noted Pittsburgh Banker Is Dead

Alexander Dunbar, 53, Dies As Result Of Operation; Born In Steubenville

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 26.—Alexander Dunbar, 53, vice president of the Bank of Pittsburgh, N. A., died suddenly today at a hospital here following an operation.

Dunbar, one of the most prominent figures in financial circles here, was president of the Pennsylvania State Bankers' Association in 1928. He is survived by his wife and a daughter.

Dunbar was born in Steubenville, O., where he began his banking career. He left his profession only once, in 1901, when he assumed a position in the accounting department of Carnegie Steel Company. Two years later he became secretary and treasurer of Moreland Trust Company, Pittsburgh. He served in various capacities with Guarantee Title & Trust Company and Exchange National Bank before becoming connected with the Bank of Pittsburgh.

Hunt In Mexican Hills For Rebels In Train Blasting

Seven Killed As National Railways Is Wrecked By Blast, One American Killed

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, June 26.—Federal troops were scouring the hills between Bernal and Queretaro today for a band of Guerillas believed to have been responsible for the dynamiting of a train of the National Railways which resulted in the death of seven persons, one an American.

The American killed was Andrew Robinson, the locomotive engineer. The other victims were Mexican passengers. Twenty passengers were injured. The explosion derailed the locomotive, baggage car and two coaches.

Robinson had lived in Mexico 35 years. He was the only American employed as locomotive engineer by the National Railways.

Tex Rickard To Bid For 1932 Convention

(International News Service)

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—Tex Rickard, the impressario, who stages political conventions, six-day bicycle races and Dempsey fights, intends to make a bid for the Democratic convention of 1932, he announced here today.

Rickard took one look at Sam Houston hall and immediately declared he had a better hall back at the New Madison Square Garden in New York for the next convention.

"I'm just down here for a look at the convention," said Rickard, who came in on a Smith special train. "You see, Texas is my old home, so I'm visiting around. Say, this isn't as big a convention as the one I threw for the boys in my old garden."

Then waxing a bit confidential, Rickard added: "Say, it's hotter here, too."

"What about four years hence?" he was asked.

"Oh, I'm going to make a bid for the next one," Tex replied. "I could have had this one but some of the boys walked out on me and I threw up the campaign. But I'm really going out after the next one."

U. S. Steamship Lines Are Likely To Be Purchased

Shipping Board Planning To Dispose Of Ships, Including Leviathan

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The United States Steamship Lines may be put on the auction block by the shipping board within a short time, it was learned today.

The board will consider the project soon.

Reports here indicate that W. F. Kenney, wealthy New Yorker, who is one of Governor Al Smith's big backers, has joined with L. R. Wilder of New York and associates in a plan to bid for the United States Lines, which include the Leviathan, and to establish a large merhant fleet.

Kenney already has made an offer to charter the lines, but no recent overtures have been made to the board by the Kenney interests.

Dance Marathon At Pittsburgh Is Close To Record

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 26.—Trailing the New York bunion derby by only three hours, three negro couples at the Motor Square marathon fest, checked in 376 hours at 8 a. m. today and then proceeded to continue to dog the heels of the New York marathoners.

Two of the couples in the negro hoofing match celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary last night. Shuffling away from one end of the floor to the other, the couple ate their wedding anniversary cake and invited the other two contesting couples to join the celebration.

Ten couples at Duquesne Gardens started another century of hours at 8 a. m. when they passed the 300 hour mark.

Some of the large-sized paper money is possessed by Scots, and the rest will be retired from circulation by the government.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 26.—A sharp advance in many prominent rail stocks featured an inactive stock market today. Delaware and Hudson spurted 12 points to 197 and gains of one to 2 points were made by other dividend paying Eastern railroads.

The market was handicapped by a tightening in money, banks withdrawing a considerable amount of loans in preparation for July first requirements and the call loan rate rising to 7 per cent in the third hour. Trading was slow, but slightly more active than on the previous day.

The motors and coppers followed the rails to higher price levels. Chrysler Corporation held steady, while Dodge Brothers sold off slightly on news of the injunction to restrain those two companies from merging.

A 3 point rise in Anaconda Copper was accompanied by the dividend action which placed the stock on a $4 annual dividend basis.

Claim Smith To Be Nominated On First Ballot

(International News Service)

HOUSTON, Tex., June 26.—Gov. Al Smith will be nominated for the presidency on the first ballot, his managers predicted two hours before the Democratic national convention was to get under way today.

This marked the first time that the Smith leaders have given any official indication that they expected the New York executive to go over on the first roll call. Previously they had taken the position that every favorite son should have a chance to show his strength and they were satisfied to predict the governor's nomination on "an early ballot."

German Aviatrix Plans Ocean Hop

Will Make Start From Canada In Few Days In Mrs. Stillman's Plane

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 26.—Thea Rasche, German aviatrix plans to take off from Camp Medelyn Field at Grande Mere, Canada, within the next few days on the first leg of a trans-Atlantic flight to Germany in Mrs. Anne U. Stillman's plane, The North Star. Mrs. Stillman, who is backing the flight, announced that Miss Rasche and the plane already are at Grande Mere, near the Stillman lodge, Grand Anse, Quebec.

Miss Rasche will fly the North Star to Harbor Grace, N. F., where the plane will be refueled, and then will hop for Germany, according to Mrs. Stillman.

The aviatrix journeyed to Canada by train. The plane was flown from Hadlet Field, N. H. to Grande Mere late yesterday by Pilot Ulrich Koenmann. Miss Rasche fled to Canada under cover of secrecy to avoid a breach of contract suit brought by the Hollis Corporation and Howard W. Harwell, original backers of the flight. The departure of the aviatrix proved to be needless, because after she left an injunction to restrain her flight was denied by Justice Valente.

Mrs. Stillman, who is the wife of James A. Stillman, the banker, said she would go to Canada this week to direct preparations for the trans-Atlantic flight.

Y.M.C.A. Announces Swimming Schedule

Special Evening Classes Are Arranged For Employed Boys Of Y

The summer swimming schedule for the boys' department of the New Castle Y. M. C. A. is announced this morning by John C. Leonard, secretary of the department.

The schedule is as follows:

Beginners: Friday mornings at 10 o'clock.

Midgets: Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock.

Junior B's and A's: Monday Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 11 o'clock.

Junior and Senior Employed Boys: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7 o'clock.

High school and employed boys who work in the evenings are urged to swim with the Junior B's and A's, while the high school boys who work in the mornings are asked to come to the evening classes.

Monday morning there were 50 Midgets who took advantage of an early morning dip, while 30 others were in the later class.

NAME TAPES

Boys who will attend the Y. M. C. A. camps and who have not yet secured their name tapes to sew on their clothing, are asked to call at the Y. M. C. A. immediately.

Plans Being Made For Annual Outing At Cascade Park

Plans are already well under way by the committee of the Old Timers Day for the annual affair, which will be held this year on Wednesday, August 15 at Cascade Park. There will be all the usual activities of the annual event and indications are that there will be another record crowd in attendance on this occasion.

The committee in charge is functioning in good shape with H. D. McGoun as president and W. T. Butz as secretary-treasurer.

BROTHERHOOD MEETS.

Men's Brotherhood of St. John's Lutheran church entertained the members of the congregation at a social Monday evening at the home of Henry Alborn of the old Pittsburg road.

About seventy-five were present. The evening was enjoyably spent with out door games as features of amusement. During the evening, Rev. F. E. Stough and Mrs. Stough gave very interesting talks on their recent trip to the south.

Refreshments were served by the men at a later hour.

Union Meetings Are Arranged

Young People Of United Presbyterian Churches To Combine Services

ARRANGE SCHEDULE FOR SUMMER MONTHS

The customary summer union meetings of the Young People's Christian Union societies of the First, Second and Highland U. P. churches of this city will be ushered in on next Sunday evening, July 1, in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A..

The action calling for joint meetings of the three societies during July and August was adopted several years ago when the evening church services of the three churches represented were discontinued. Since that time the joint meetings during that period have been held yearly and have proved very popular.

The opening gathering next Sunday will be held in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A. and the topic to be discussed is "True Patriotism." Dewayne Glenn will preside.

At a recent outdoor gathering of the union, new officers were elected to the various positions, and are as follows: President, Miss Elizabeth Taylor; vice president, Lyle McGrath; secretary, Alice Connors; treasurer, David Ramsey.

Nine meetings will be held by the young people this summer, three at the Y. W. C. A., three at the Second U. P. church and a like number at the Highland church. After the service at the Y. W. next Sunday evening the meeting will go to the Second church and the third gathering will take place in the Highland church, rotating in that manner thruout the two months. A schedule of the meetings, including the leader and the topic to be discussed on that date follows:

July 1—Y. W. C. A., DeWayne Glenn; "True Patriotism."

July 8—Second U. P., Frank Brenneman; "Sing Praises to God."

July 15—Highland U. P., Elizabeth Taylor. Debate: "Resolved, That the young people of today should have more Christian training than those of 25 years ago."

July 22—Y. W. C. A., Alice Connor; "Beware! Watch Your Speech!"

July 29—Second U. P., Lucille Emery; "Direct Communion With God Through Prayer."

August 5—Highland U. P., Bruce Ewing; "Sidelights on the Convention."

August 12—Y. W. C. A., Alec Hanna; "Stewardship and Nature Study." (Outside meeting.)

August 19—Highland U. P., James Chambers; "Christian Fellowship."

August 26—Second U. P., Bertha Dodds; missionary topic.

USE FLY-TOX

END MOSQUITO TORMENT

In a few minutes' time the entire home can be freed of mosquitoes. With an improved FLY-TOX Hand Sprayer, spray FLY-TOX directly toward the ceiling, also on the draperies, in the closets and on the screens. It will not leave a stain on the most delicate of wallpapers, hangings or fabrics. Spray upwards until all parts of the room are filled with the finely atomized spray. Within a few minutes all the mosquitoes in the room will be dead, regardless of whether the windows and doors are open or closed. In addition to being stainless, FLY-TOX is fragrant, is absolutely harmless to people but sure death to all household insects. Every bottle guaranteed.—Adv.

TRUE IVORITES NAME OFFICERS

Henry T. Jones Is Nominated For President; News Notes Of Welsh Interest

By W. A. JOHNS, Brython

At the regular meeting of Star of Wales lodge, True Ivorites of America, held last Saturday evening, officers were nominated for the ensuing term of office. Henry T. Jones acted as president and William Richards as vice president of the meeting.

Officers nominated were as follows: president, Henry T. Jones; vice president, Thomas Grey; conductor, Griffith Phillips; inside guardian, Evan Hopkins; outside guardian, William Richards; auditors, Evan Hopkins, Henry T. Jones and Charles Richards.

The election will take place in two weeks from last Saturday evening, that being the next regular meeting. The financial secretary, treasurer and the recording secretary are not elected at this time, being elected annually.

GO TO WALES

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Evans of South Mercer street are preparing for a trip to Wales. They will sail from Montreal, Canada, on July 5. This is the first trip for both Mr. and Mrs. Evans from that port. They will stay at the old home, Llamsamlet, South Wales, where many of their relatives still reside. Mr. Evans has a leave of absence for three months, so they will spend that length of time overseas.

They are planning to visit London and Paris and to also attend the national Eisteddfod while in Wales.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Brinley Hughes and John Evans, manager of the Cash Buyers Store, left Sunday morning in the Hughes car for Toronto, Canada, for the purpose of attending the Baptist world convention. Rev. Aubrey of England, a nephew of Mr. Evans, is secretary of the convention and Mr. Evans went there for the express purpose of seeing him, Rev. Aubrey being but two years old the last time that Mr. Evans saw him in England. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and Mr. Evans will return home next Thursday at the close of the convention.

WELSH NOTES

Prof. Herbert Davies of Youngstown was a visitor in the city over Sunday and attended the sacred concert held at the First Christian church. He was much pleased with the program.

Mrs. Samuel Jones, formerly Miss Mary Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips of East Reynolds street, is visiting at the home of her parents at the present time. Mrs. Jones moved to Gary, Ind., some time ago, where her husband has secured a position in the tin mill at that place. She reports Anuerin Edwards, formerly of this city, is one of the hot mill foremen.

Mrs. William W. Francis met with a painful accident while she was stepping from a street car near her home, which is located on Edgewood avenue. She stepped on a piece of glass and the family had to send for a physician. He found it necessary to put several stitches in the wound on one of her feet. She is doing as well as could be expected.

Word has been received from Thomas Edwards, who is located in Pico, Calif., which tells of his wife and himself being quite sick. Mrs. Edwards is confined to her bed most of the time, but the balance, the rest of the family, is enjoying good health, including Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rogers and Ivan, Edward, Clifford and Katherine Edwards.

Miss Elizabeth Harvard of Euclid avenue has returned home from a visit in Chicago, Ill., where she went to consult a specialist.

Mrs. Evan Williams and son Thomas and family have arrived at her home on Bleakley avenue from New York City.

Perfect Attendance Record For 6 Years

Enon Valley Boy Makes Exceptional Record For School Attendance

Never being tardy, and never being absent from school for six years is the record made by the son of Mrs. George Von Berg of Enon Valley.

Mrs. Von Berg writes to The News: "My boy has made a perfect record of six years, never being tardy and never being forced to leave school on account of illness."

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

There are many ways of making a living, of course, but among those which rank as tough ones, the business of boxing for a living is about first. As a sporting venture most of us are still close enough to the primal instinct to enjoy seeing two huskies maul each other, and forsooth, the two huskies may be getting a king's ransom for the evening's work, but to reiterate, it's a tough racket.

No game more surely typifies the slang expression, "it won't be long" as does the business of boxing. No matter the skill and endurance of the contestants, it won't be long until they are classed as old, burned out and second-raters.

Saw a bit of Bill Jolly's fistic jousting last night and Monsieur Bill is to be congratulated upon his arena. As I sat there at the edge of the ring watching the two main bout boxers battle away it occurred to me that they were earning whatever they got, and they were being paid well for their work.

The "old" man of the two, Battling Levinsky, is old only in ring parlance. In any other business he would be a young man, but boxing is a hard taskmaster. The younger man, Emmett Rocco, is just beginning to approach his top form. He was battling for a chance at the big bouts. Levinsky was battling to save himself from a knockout and a further slipping down the pugilistic ladder.

It's a tough game, but as long as there are youths ready to listen to the Loreli of the ring, to be willing to exchange one on the chin for a chance to return one, just so long will the American public lay its money over the counter and step inside. For, after all, there is a thrill about it all, the lights, the crowd, the thud, thud of gloves and the suspense as two youths try to drop each other on the canvas.

The evening was rather unique for the engineer. Attended a wedding earlier in the evening and then jumped to the boxing arena. From the sublime to the ridiculous. From the strains of the wedding march to the chant of the boxing pack. From orange blossoms and boquets to right jabs and black eyes.

These weddings are almost exclusively feminine affairs. Mere man fits in about as well as Cal Coolidge would in the Houston convention. There has to be a groom, of course, but he gets as little as possible to do. Church weddings are designed for the ladies, God bless 'em, and as long as they enjoy the pomp and circumstances, the exotic perfume of the flowers, and the strains of "Oh Promise Me" floating out over the congregation, then just that long will we have such impressive affairs.

Fred Llewellyn is engrossed these days. Fred has that world's champion tomato crop to handle out in Scott township, and orders are being taken now. No sample orders, nothing less than six-crate lots, f.o.b. on the back porch.

Johnny Daugherty will soon be in training to challenge "Shipwreck" Kelley and his flagpole sitting championship. The new News sign is up, and in order to put globes in, somebody will have to climb the little ladder on the side of it. For which task Mr. Daugherty is nominated on the first ballot and elected unanimously. And if Johnny ever slips it's going to cost us all fifty cents each for lines.

That noise you will hear for the next few days will not be thunder or the firing of heavy artillery. The Democratic convention opens today in Houston, Texas.
